

SECRET MASTER.

THE FOURTH GRADE OF THE ANCIENT AND ACCEPTED
SCOTTISH RITE, AND THE FIRST DEGREE OF THE IN-EFFABLE SERIES.

THE LODGE AND ITS DECORATIONS.

The Lodge of Secret Masters represents the Holy Place or Sanctuary of the Temple; is hung in black, strewed with white tears, and contains the brazen salver of pure water, with napkins and bunch of hyssop, the seven-branch candlestick, which is burning in the East, and which is the only light in the Lodge.

The Sanctuary is separated from the Holy of Holies by a balustrade of white marble and heavy hangings of black. In the balustrade of white marble there is one door of two leaves, made of olive-wood and beautifully ornate. Immediately in front of this entrance are four small columns of white, in quadrangular position, united by rods, from which hangings of four colors, white, blue, purple, and crimson, are suspended: on either side of all these are two brazen columns supporting each a sphere.
