These women most of them clerical workers in the large government bureaucracy are ambivalent about working outside the home considering it a change which brings new burdens as well as some important benefits At the same time they realize that leaving home and family is creating an intolerable situation of the erosion of their social status and the loss of their traditional identity The new veiling expresses women s protest against this MacLeod argues that the symbolism of the new veiling emerges from this tense subcultural dilemma involving elements of both resistance and acquiescence Records & Briefs New York State Appellate Division , The Revolutionary Spirit in France and America Bernard Faÿ,1927
