Collective Remarks Anne Gribbons, 2014-11-14 World renowned dressage judge and former US Olympic coach Anne Gribbons has had the unique experience of living the trajectory of the dressage evolution in the United States A native of Sweden Gribbons has been active in the US dressage scene since 1972 when dressage in this country was in its infancy She has trained and shown sixteen of her own horses to Grand Prix nine of which were long listed for the United States Equestrian Team and one of which Metallic was on the Olympic bronze medal winning dressage team in Atlanta under current US Dressage Team Technical Advisor Robert Dover In addition to her equine students Gribbons has coached many successful riders through the levels and she has always been willing to share her experience and guidance in the form of clinics lectures and her popular column in the consummate American equestrian magazine The Chronicle of the Horse Over the course of almost 20 years Gribbons provided commentary on the state of dressage in the United States and around the world tying together her diverse viewpoints from the ground from the saddle and from the judge s stand with her trademark style and wit Now the best and in some cases the worst of Gribbons personal experiences as a rider trainer breeder facility owner sponsor competitor instructor coach and judge first shared in her Chronicle columns are gathered into one immensely entertaining sourcebook of history humorous anecdotes attempts to learn from dressage s past and prophecies about the sport s future Anyone with an interest in dressage its controversies and its most famous names will enjoy Gribbons stories but the true value is in her ideas for improving our horses our riders and our ability to compete on the international scene with success and integrity in the years to come

Four Legs Move My Soul Isabell Werth, 2020-02-01 German Olympian Isabell Werth is one of the most successful horsewomen in the world With six Olympic gold medals and scores of championship titles to her name there are few her equal on paper But an equestrian s success is wholly dependent on the relationship she has with her athletic partner her horse and Werth s astounding accomplishments would not have been possible without her unique approach to working with the animals she s loved since childhood Even as a little girl growing up on a farm on the Lower Rhine it was clear that Werth possessed an extraordinary gift for empathizing with horses and foreseeing how they were likely to react in certain situations

This insight gave her a special ability as a rider and trainer Here Werth collaborates with accomplished sports journalist Evi Simeoni someone who has witnessed and written about her career from the very beginning to tell her life story Readers will get the inside scoop when it comes to Werth s accomplishments and her failures too They ll hear her personal thoughts regarding some of the biggest controversies to rock the dressage world Rollkur and Totilas Perhaps most importantly they ll learn about each of the sensitive and talented horses that has impacted Werth s life including Gigolo Satchmo and Bella Rose For you see there is a meme that is popular in the riding community that says Two legs move our body four legs move our soul And it is this sentiment that Werth feels perhaps best defines her
