Revolution in the World Petroleum Market Mary Ann Tetreault, 1985-08-19 The Global Oil Market Anthony H. Cordesman, Khalid R. Al-Rodhan, 2006-03-20 The future of energy is of enormous strategic importance and the current energy market faces major uncertainties and risks The goal of this study is to provide a risk assessment of the global oil market Cordesman and Al Rodhan study six major oil producing regions of the world the Middle East Africa Asia and the Pacific Europe and Eurasia North America and South and Central America In each case the authors outline national oil developments and focus on four major areas of risks and uncertainties macroeconomic fluctuations geopolitical risks oil production uncertainties and the nature of resources BOOK JACKET Review and Outlook for the World Oil Market Shane S. Streifel, 1995-01-01 After the collapse of the Soviet system the immense problems of environmental pollution in Central and Eastern Europe were widely publicized Less well known were its effects on health in the region which have led to a serious health crisis This report examines the degree to which the pollution adversely affected human health putting it in the context of other health determinants such as socioeconomic factors health care standards and availability and lifestyle factors Among the numerous pollutants the report points to lead dust toxic gases and nitrates in rural water supplies as having a significant impact on health in Central and Eastern Europe The author suggests possible avenues for international action However an analysis of the determinants of health reveals that addressing the pollution problems alone will not solve the health crisis Improving health in this region will depend on the changing economic fortunes of individual countries and the ability of each to create a supportive social environment for its citizens
