The Ministry of Utmost Happiness Arundhati Roy, 2017-06-06 New York Times Best Seller Longlisted for the Man Booker Prize Named a Best Book of 2017 by NPR Amazon Kirkus The Washington Post Newsday and the Hudson Group A dazzling richly moving new novel by the internationally celebrated author of The God of Small Things The Ministry of Utmost Happiness takes us on an intimate journey of many years across the Indian subcontinent from the cramped neighborhoods of Old Delhi and the roads of the new city to the mountains and valleys of Kashmir and beyond where war is peace and peace is war It is an aching love story and a decisive remonstrance a story told in a whisper in a shout through unsentimental tears and sometimes with a bitter laugh Each of its characters is indelibly tenderly rendered Its heroes are people who have been broken by the world they live in and then rescued patched together by acts of love and by hope The tale begins with Anjum who used to be Aftab unrolling a threadbare Persian carpet in a city graveyard she calls home We encounter the odd unforgettable Tilo and the men who loved her including Musa sweetheart and ex sweetheart lover and ex lover their fates are as entwined as their arms used to be and always will be We meet Tilo's landlord a former suitor now an intelligence officer posted to Kabul And then we meet the two Miss Jebeens the first a child born in Srinagar and buried in its overcrowded Martyrs Graveyard the second found at midnight abandoned on a concrete sidewalk in the heart of New Delhi As this ravishing deeply humane novel braids these lives together it reinvents what a novel can do and can be The Ministry of Utmost Happiness demonstrates on every page the miracle of Arundhati Roy's storytelling gifts
