Tom Reber's Last Retreat Øystein Lønn,1992      Seeing Through Multilingual Corpora Stig Johansson,2007-01-01
Through electronic corpora we can observe patterns which we were unaware of before or only vaguely glimpsed The availability of multilingual corpora has led to a renewal of contrastive studies We gain new insight into similarities and differences between languages at the same time as the characteristics of each language are brought into relief The present book focuses on the work in building and using the English Norwegian Parallel Corpus and the Oslo Multilingual Corpus Case studies are reported on lexis grammar and discourse A concluding chapter sums up problems and prospects of corpus based contrastive studies including applications in lexicography translator training and foreign language teaching Though the main focus is on English and Norwegian the approach should be of interest more generally for corpus based contrastive research and for language studies in general Seeing through corpora we can see through language      Genre- and Register-related Discourse Features in Contrast Marie-Aude Lefer,Svetlana Vogeleer,2016-07-20 This volume contributes to filling a gap in corpus based research by investigating the ways in which linguistic features vary across genres registers cross linguistically It brings together insightful chapters by leading scholars in the field fruitfully exploiting genre or register controlled multilingual parallel and comparable corpora to i problematize cross register variation in a multilingual perspective ii address methodological and theoretical issues raised by register oriented contrastive and translation studies iii investigate the cross linguistic and cross genre variation of specific linguistic features such as lexical bundles sentence initial adverbials and tag questions iv identify cross cultural and cross linguistic dissimilarities in expressing a functional category viz Appraisal in the field of opinion mining The book offers new cutting edge research that should be of interest to specialists in contrastive linguistics translation studies and cross cultural studies Originally published as a special issue of Languages in Contrast 14 1 2014      Corpora and Cross-Linguistic Research ,2023-11-27 In recent years there has been increasing interest in the development and use of bilingual and multilingual corpora As Karin Aijmer writes in this book The contrastive or comparative perspective makes it possible to dig deeper and to ask new questions about the relationship between languages with the aim of sharpening our conceptions of cross linguistic correspondences and adding to our knowledge of the languages compared The papers in this volume are a showcase of the great variety of purposes to which bilingual and multilingual corpora can be put They do not only lend themselves to descriptive and applied approaches but are also suitable for theory oriented studies The range of linguistic phenomena covered by the various approaches is very wide the papers focus on fields of research like syntax discourse semantics information structure lexis and translation studies The range of languages studied comprises English Norwegian Swedish German Dutch and Portuguese In addition to purely linguistic papers there are contributions on computer programs developed for the compilation and use of bilingual and multilingual corpora      Contrastive Analysis of Discourse-pragmatic Aspects of Linguistic Genres Karin Aijmer,Diana Lewis,2017-03-29

This volume will give readers insight into how genres are characterised by the patterns of frequency and distribution of linguistic features across a number of European languages The material presented in this book will also stimulate further corpus based contrastive research including more languages more genres and different types of corpora This is the first special issue of the Yearbook of Corpus Linguistics and Pragmatics a publication that addresses the interface between the two disciplines and offers a platform to scholars who combine both methodologies to present rigorous and interdisciplinary findings about language in real use Corpus linguistics and Pragmatics have traditionally represented two paths of scientific thought parallel but often mutually exclusive and excluding Corpus Linguistics can offer a meticulous methodology based on mathematics and statistics while Pragmatics is characterized by its effort in the interpretation of intended meaning in real language The Norseman, 1994 Twentieth-century Norwegian Writers Tanya Thresher, 2004 Presents biographies and criticism of some of the most influential Norwegian writers of the twentieth century producing a representative cross section of the Norwegian literary environment with writers of various decades movements and genres preference has been given to authors whose works have been translated into English The Web Server Handbook Pete Palmer, Adam Schneider, Anne Chenette, 1996 Even if others abandon you you must never abandon yourself This simple truth became Terry Helwig's lifeline as she was forced to grow up too soon Terry grew up the oldest of six girls in the big sky country of the American Southwest where she attended twelve schools in eleven years Helwig's stepfather Davy a good hearted and loving man proudly purchased a mobile home to enable his family to move more easily from one oil town to another where Davy eked out a living in the oil fields Terry's mother Carola Jean a wild rose whose love often pierced those who tried to claim her had little interest in the confines of home and motherhood In Davy's absence she sought companionship in local watering holes a pastime she dubbed visiting Timbuktu She repeatedly left Terry in charge of the household and her five younger sisters Despite Carola Jean's genuine attempts to better herself her life spiraled ever downward as Terry struggled to keep the family whole In the midst of transience and upheaval Terry and her sisters forged an uncommon bond of sisterhood that withstood the erosion of Davy and Carola Jean's marriage But ultimately to keep her own dreams alive Terry had to decide when to hold on to what she loved and when to let go Unflinching in its portrayal yet told with humor and compassion Terry Helwig's luminous memoir Moonlight on Linoleum explores a family's inner and outer landscapes of hope despair and redemption It will make you laugh cry and hunger for more Norwegian Literature, 1994 ICAME Journal, 1996
