was going to see what Mr Hastings boat would sell for but I didn t exactly think of buying it Still But you wouldn t buy a damaged boat would you It isn t much damaged and in his eagerness the young inventor for Tom Swift had taken out several patents stood his motor cycle up against the fence and came closer to his father It s only slightly damaged he went on I can easily fix it I looked it all over before I gave it in charge of the authorities and it s certainly a fine boat It s worth nine hundred dollars or it was when it was new That s a good deal of money for a boat and Mr Swift looked serious for though he was well off he was inclined to be conservative Oh I shouldn t think of paying that much In fact dad I really had no idea of bidding at the auction I only thought I d go over and get an idea of what the boat might sell for Perhaps some day Tom paused Since his father had begun to question him some new plans had come into the lad s head He looked at his parent and saw a smile beginning to work around the corners of Mr Swift s lips There was also a humorous look in the eyes of the older inventor
