Science Meets Literature Dario Maestriperi,2019-06-28 Elias Canetti s 1935 novel Auto da F original German title Die Blendung has traditionally been difficult to interpret and the author s intentions in writing it have remained unclear Science Meets Literature argues that Auto da F is a novel about human nature that illustrates the workings of the human mind and some universal aspects of human behavior and human social relationships Canetti s insights anticipated later scientific discoveries made by cognitive social and evolutionary psychology including the existence of irrational biases in human cognition e g in perception beliefs and decision making the strengths and limitations of human theory of mind skills i e our ability to think about other people s minds and read them the establishment maintenance and reversal of dominance in social relationships between two individuals and the role of dehumanization in harmful behavior Canetti intended to warn against the conviction held by some intellectuals that human nature can be denied controlled ignored or dismissed His approach in Auto da F was an original attempt at the integration of knowledge formation in sciences and humanities He pointed the way for future successful attempts at the integration of evolution cognitive science and literature as well as for the broader integration of sciences and humanities

Metaphors of Multilingualism Rainer Guldin,2020-03-27 Metaphors of Multilingualism explores changing attitudes towards multilingualism by focusing on shifts

both in the choice and in the use of metaphors Rainer Guldin uses linguistics philosophy literature literary theory and related disciplines to trace the radical redefinition of multilingualism that has taken place over the last decades This overall change constitutes a paradigmatic shift However despite the emergence of the new paradigm the traditional monolingual point of view is still significantly influencing present day attitudes towards multilingualism Consequently the emergent paradigm has to be studied in close connection with its predecessor This book is the first extensive attempt to provide a critical overview of the key metaphors that organize current perceptions of multilingualism Instead of an exhaustive list of possible metaphors of multilingualism the emphasis is on three closely interrelated and overlapping clusters that play a central role in both paradigms organic metaphors of the body kinship and gender metaphors as well as spatial metaphors The examples are taken from different languages among them French German Chinese Japanese Spanish and Brazilian Portuguese This is ground breaking reading for scholars and researchers in the fields of linguistics literature philosophy media studies anthropology history and cultural studies

Placebo Effects: The Meaning of Care in Medicine Pekka Louhiala,2020-03-24 This book provides a perspective on the concepts placebo and placebo effects which has been missing so far a detailed analysis of the history of the terms their current use suggested alternatives and the implications of the conceptual confusion Everybody knows something about placebos and placebo effects If however people are asked to define the concepts the spectrum becomes wide Does placebo refer to an inert treatment or does it cover all elements of the patient physician interaction except for pharmacological or other physiological mechanisms Furthermore if by definition a placebo has no effect what sense does it make to talk about a placebo effect Even in scientific literature the concepts placebo and placebo effect are used in many senses and often in a confusing way While this book discusses many issues which keep puzzling physicians it also covers the historical developments of the concepts of placebo and placebo effect as well as the conceptual confusion in the definitions This book is intended for physicians philosophers psychologists and any other people interested in placebos placebo effects and the physician patient relationship The Encyclopaedia Britannica Hugh Chisholm,1910
