Tourism Promotion And Power Creating Images Creating Identities:

Tourism Promotion and Power Nigel Morgan, Annette Pritchard, 1998 Informed by modern marketing theory this book offers a unique approach by taking a comprehensive synthesised and integrated sociological and cultural approach to tourism marketing It focuses on controversial issues of tourism imagery highlighting issues such as gender sexuality and race as key determinants of tourism power dimensions Students of tourism will find this book a thought provoking and conceptual evaluation of the subject Practitioners will find value in the discussion of how the issues raised have been integrated throughout the case studies The SAGE Handbook of Tourism Studies Tazim Jamal, Mike Robinson, 2009-07-01 The strongest overview I have encountered of the scope and the current state of research across all the fields involved in advancing our understanding of tourism For its range of topics depth of analyses and distinction of its contributors nothing is comparable Professor Dean MacCannell University of California Davis The breadth of vision and sweep of accounts is remarkable and range of topics laudable a rare combination of the authoritative the challenging and stimulating Professor Mike Crang Durham University Tourism studies developed as a sub branch of older disciplines in the social sciences such as anthropology sociology and economics and newer applied fields of study in hospitality management civil rights and transport studies This Handbook is a sign of the maturity of the field It provides an essential resource for teachers and students to determine the roots key issues and agenda of tourism studies exploring The evolution and position of tourism studies The relationship of tourism to culture The ecology and economics of tourism Special events and destination management Methodologies of study Tourism and transport Tourism and heritage Tourism and postcolonialism Global tourist business operations Ranging from local to global issues and from questions of management to the ethical dilemmas of tourism this is a comprehensive critically informed constructively organized overview of the field It draws together an inter disciplinary group of contributors who are among the most celebrated names in the field and will be quickly recognized as a landmark in the new and expanding field of tourism studies Tourism Research Methods Brent W. Ritchie, Peter Burns, Catherine Palmer, 2005 Within the tourism industry there is a growing consensus on the need for research to investigate the economic social and environmental impacts of tourism However existing research methods texts are based solely on either the business approach or the social science approach to tourism They often fail to provide real world examples of how to plan implement or analyse tourism related research This book aims to address this divide by integrating theory with practice through the inclusion of specific tourism research case studies alongside research theory It considers a wide range of research issues approaches and techniques with contributions from both experienced and new researchers Tourism and National Identity Elspeth Frew, Leanne White, 2011-03-15 This is the first volume to fully explore the relationship between Tourism and National Identity and multiple ways in which cultural tourism events and celebrations contribute to national identity By doing so the book provides important insights into how planners and managers can better manage attractions and events in the future The book achieves this by reviewing core topics critical to the understanding of this relationship including tourism branding stereotyping and national identity tourism related representation and experience of national identity such as when tourists travel to particular nations and what this means in relation to their identity tourism visitation site event management and the relationship to cultural tourism The book looks at a range of international tourist sites and events combines multidisciplinary perspectives and international cases to provide a solid thorough academic analysis Written by an international team of leading academics this book will be of interest to students researchers academics in Tourism and related disciplines such as Events and Cultural Geography

Tourism and Visual Culture Theories and concepts Peter M. Burns, Cathy Palmer, Jo-Anne Lester, 2010 Tourism is an essentially visual experience we leave our homes so as to travel to see places thus adding to our personal knowledge about and experience of the world The study of tourism as a complex social phenomenon beyond simply business is increasing in importance and by providing an examination of perceptions of culture and society in tourism destinations through the tourist's eyes this book discusses how destinations were and are created and perceived through the lens of the tourist's gaze It is essential reading for researchers and students in tourism and related subjects
