L. Hammond, 2017-12-25 Excerpt from The Town Labourer 1760 1832 the New Civilization This book was almost ready for publication in the summer of 1914 When it was put on one side for the more pressing tasks of the war It is published now because it seems to the writers that the subject it discusses has a direct bearing on problems that are beginning to engage the attention of the nation as the war draws however slowly to its end The more closely any period of history is studied the more clearly does it appear that the mistakes and troubles of an age are due to a false spirit an unhappy fashion in thought or emotion a tendency in the human mind to be overwhelmed by the phenomena of the time and to accept those phenomena as the guide to conduct and judgment instead of checking and criticising them by a reasoned standard of its own Men come to think that it is their business to explain rather than to control the forces of the hour About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works      TOWN LABOURER 1760-1832 THE NEW CIVILIZATION Barbara Bradby 1873-1961 Hammond, J.
