Austria and Other Margins Katherine Arens, 1996 Case studies looking at how literature crosses national and cultural boundaries John Irving Josie P. Campbell, 1998-11-24 One of America's most noted contemporary novelists John Irving has created a body of fiction of extraordinary range moving with ease from romance to fairytale to thriller Although his fiction follows in the tradition of the great 19th century world novelists he is a quintessential American writer his novels are laced with broad humor farce and absurd situations He does not hesitate to tackle the troubling issues that have faced our nation in the past few decades such as war racism sexism abortion violence and AIDS This study offers a clear accessible reading of Irving's fiction It analyzes in turn all of his novels from Setting Free the Bears 1968 to his newest novel A Widow for One Year 1998 It also provides the reader with a complete bibliography of Irving's fiction as well as selected reviews and criticism Following a biographical chapter on Irving's life an overview of his fiction explores his work in light of his literary heritage and use of a variety of genres Each of the following chapters examines an individual novel Setting Free the Bears
