The Valley of the Moon Jack London,1913 Atacama Desert Marcelo José da Silva de Magalhães,2018-01-01 A picture is worth a thousand words but never reproduces the true feeling of being physically in the place that is being portrayed The photograph does not bring with it the scent of the earth the wind the sunshine and the heat of it on our skin However he is able to show us in a smaller proportion what it would be to be in that place The Atacama Desert is among the most fabulous tourist places in the world As a photographer I consider it the most beautiful place I have visited especially the altiplanic lagoons and the Puna Nature has never been so intense and challenging in its extremes Dry high colorful silent and mysterious is the Atacama Desert Simply amazing I invite you to look through this book and get to know some of this fantastic desert
