Van Gogh, Arles, Murder Maurice Beale, 2010 Beginning with his arrival in Arles in March 1888 a combination of factual and fictitious events relating to Vincent Van Gogh are revealed while the Dutchman goes about creating timeless works of art A number of drawings and paintings of previously unknown locals are finally afforded names and backgrounds Prominent amongst these is a portrait of a young girl to whom the artist is especially attracted When she is found murdered suspicion falls on Van Gogh Harassed by both a tireless police inspector and a majority of the citizens of Arles the painter descends into the madness and despair culminating in his slicing off part of an ear while remaining sufficiently lucid to identify and paint the man he suspects of the crime Circumstances and characters pertaining to the murder define aspects of Van Gogh s personality as well as portraying a way of life in nineteenth century France remarkably similar to present day problems in the USA
