Vancouver Fair:

Vancouver & Beyond Fred Thirkell, 2000 An anthology of 50 stories about Vancouver and environs in the early years of the 20th century These stories grew out of a collection of picture postcards not just any old postcards but particularly appealing real photo cards that seemed to be waiting to have their stories told While some of the images are not uncommon most of the pictures are rare if not one of a kind survivors of the golden age of postcards which encompassed the years between 1900 and 1914 the relatively short period of time when Vancouver ended its days as a frontier town and became a significant Canadian city

East Side Story Nick Marino, 2023-11-07 A sly sentimental and wickedly funny memoir about growing up at the local fair The PNE Pacific National Exhibition is a Vancouver tradition an annual fair started in 1910 that is famous for its farm animals dog trick shows and amusement park highlighted by Canada's oldest wooden roller coaster still in existence In 1980 when Nick Marino was twelve years old he started working at the PNE and quickly learned that there was more to the fair than winning stuffed animals and eating mini donuts He had to contend with belligerent bosses unhinged carnies and teenage hustlers In this funny charming memoir of fair life Marino revisits the wild west of the city's East Side home to the PNE sharing stories from his six summers working at the fair where arcade bouncers went on midnight roller coaster rides riots broke out at concerts and local kids helped themselves to everything With beguiling and at times poignant humor he pulls back the curtain on the culture of carnivals and fairs an unpredictable and eternally young world of players scammers and dreamers East Side Story is the latest addition to the Robin's Egg Books series which features some of the freshest smartest and above all funniest writing on a variety of culturally relevant subjects Titles in the imprint are curated and edited by comedian playwright and author Charles Demers This publication meets the EPUB Accessibility requirements and it also meets the Web Content Accessibility Guidelines WCAG AA It is screen reader friendly and is accessible to persons with disabilities A book with many images which is defined with accessible structural markup This book contains various accessibility features such as alternative text for images table of contents page list landmark reading order and semantic structure

Mary Kitagawa Karen M. Inouye, 2024-11-05 This book tells the story of Japanese Canadian activist Mary Kitagawa In the aftermath of the Pearl Harbor bombing Mary was one of roughly 22 000 Nikkei uprooted from their homes on the Pacific coast and forbidden to return to western British Columbia until long after World War II had officially ended In the decades that followed Mary and her family navigated financial precarity and ostracism but also found ways to pursue both economic stability and political engagement Beginning with Mary's grandparents who were among the earliest immigrants to Canada from Japan this book tracks the family's experiences and those of the larger Nikkei Canadian community from the late 1800s to the present Concentrating on the interpersonal and intergenerational bonds that shaped Kitagawa Karen M Inouye describes the increasingly activist sensibilities that arose from transformative relationships with family members other members of the Nikkei Canadian community Doukhobors First Nations peoples and white allies as well as in response to the anti Asian racism that Kitagawa encountered in many forms throughout her life Inouye presents the Nikkei Canadian experience not as a linear triumph over a single adversity but as a continual process of identity formation in relation to obstacles and opportunities suffering and joy isolation and connection Biennial Report Washington (State).
