Voluntary Euthanasia:

The Encyclopedia of Libertarianism Ronald Hamowy, 2008-08-15 Provides an introduction to and compendium of libertarian scholarship via a series of brief articles on the historical sociological and economic aspects of libertarianism within the broader context

Ethical Studies Robert A. Bowie, 2004 A detailed treatment of ethics preparing students for the methods of study expected in higher education Covering the major western theories and their religious connections as well as a series of pertinent contemporary ethical issues This second edition has been substantially updated to provide comprehensive coverage of the Religious Ethics requirements of all major awarding bodies

Bioethics Megan-Jane Johnstone, 2015-11-20 An essential resource for both undergraduate and postgraduate students and registered nurses to develop new insights and moral wisdom around ethical issues they will face in clinical practice Bioethics A Nursing Perspective 6th Edition continues to set the standard for bioethical issues in nursing practice As with previous editions this highly respected text provides a comprehensive framework to assist students and registered nurses to understand the ethical challenges obligations and responsibilities they will encounter in daily practice Greater depth on ethical issues particularly those concerned with ethical conduct unprofessional conduct and professional misconduct and morality politics Case scenarios and critical questions to encourage students and registered nurses to reflect on key issues that relate to their own practice New chapters Ethics dehumanisation and vulnerable populations Professional obligations to report harmful behaviours with a focus on impaired practitioners child abuse and elder abuse Introduces a new concept cultural humility Content on needs versus wants the right not to be informed palliative sedation preventing ethical conflicts the relationship between professional judgment and moral decision making in nursing and health care contexts and future ethical difficulties concerned with climate change peak oil pandemic influenza antimicrobial resistance and health inequalities All chapters and references have been updated to reflect contemporary nursing practice locally and globally

A Companion to Applied Ethics R. G. Frey, Christopher Heath Wellman, 2008-04-15 Applied or practical ethics is perhaps the largest growth area in philosophy today and many issues in moral social and political life have come under philosophical scrutiny in recent years Taken together the essays in this volume including two overview essays on theories of ethics and the nature of applied ethics provide a state of the art account of the most pressing moral questions facing us today Provides a comprehensive guide to many of the most significant problems of practical ethics Offers state of the art accounts of issues in medical environmental legal social and business ethics Written by major philosophers presently engaged with these complex and profound ethical issues

First Do No Harm Sheila A. M. McLean, 2016-04-15 This collection brings together essays from leading figures in the field of medical law and ethics which address the key issues currently challenging scholars in the field It has also been compiled as a lasting testimony to the work of one of the most eminent scholars in the area Professor Ken Mason The collection marks the academic crowning of a career which has laid one of the foundation stones of an entire discipline The wide ranging contents and the standing of the contributors mean that the volume will be an invaluable resource for anyone studying or working in medical law or medical ethics

Understanding Philosophy for AS Level Christopher Hamilton, 2003 This text offers a step by step approach through all the requirements of the AQA AS level specification Using examples taken from history literature and everyday life the author links philosophical theories and debates with issues that are both relevant and familiar to students

Readings in Health Care Ethics Elisabeth Boetzkes, Wilfrid J. Waluchow, 2000-05-29 Readings in Health Care Ethics provides a wide ranging selection of important and engaging contributions to the field of health care ethics Designed as a course text for undergraduate use the anthology includes fifty six selections grouped into ten sections Included are a wide range of the most important essays both on long standing issues in biomedical ethics such as consent euthanasia and research involving human subjects and on issues that have particularly come to the fore in recent years such as the allocation of scarce medical resources and genetic alteration An extensive introduction provides a accessible general overview of ethical theory for those without previous familiarity with philosophical concepts

Voluntary Euthanasia and the Common Law Margaret Otlowski, 1997 Margaret Otlowski investigates the complex and controversial issue of active voluntary euthanasia She critically examines the criminal law prohibition of medically administered active voluntary euthanasia in common law jurisdictions and carefully looks at the situation as handled in practice The evidence of patient demands for active euthanasia and the willingness of some doctors to respond to patients requests is explored and an argument for reform of the law is made with reference to the position in the Netherlands where active voluntary euthanasia is now openly practiced

Inalienable Rights Terrance McConnell, 2000-10-19 This book explains what inalienable rights are and how they restrict the behavior of their possessors McConnell develops compelling arguments to support the inalienability of the right to life the right of conscience and a competent person's right not to have medical treatment administered without consent Yet surprisingly he argues that the inalienability of the right to life does not entail that voluntary euthanasia or assisted suicide are wrong This distinctive defense of inalienable rights will appeal to medical ethicists and other applied ethicists political theorists and philosophers of law

People v. Kevorkian; Hobbins v. Attorney General, 447 MICH 436 (1994), 1994 99759 Australian Family Physician, 1993
