

A young man and woman are shown in a close embrace, smiling and laughing. The man is on the left, wearing a dark t-shirt, and the woman is on the right, wearing a light-colored top and blue jeans. They are sitting on the ground in a wooded area with trees and foliage in the background. The lighting is soft and natural, suggesting an outdoor setting.

Anger: Its Religious and Moral Significance George Malcolm Stratton, 1923 The primary object of this book is to discuss certain problems of mind and matter particularly the relation between the mind and the brain simply as questions of psychology and physiology without regard to the bearing they may have on philosophical doctrines Still all such questions lie so deeply at the root of the latter that it is impossible to discuss the one without regarding the effect they have upon the other Hence I have not hesitated to enter into the doctrine of Materialism so far as it is affected by the conclusions arrived at Such questions as the relation of the mind to the body constitute the foundation of Spiritualism and Materialism
