Meditations for a month Andrew Murray,1894 The Sacred Writings of Saint John of Damascus John of Damascus,2012 The Sacred Writings Of provides you with the essential works among the Christian writings The volumes cover the beginning of Christianity until medieval times This volume is accurately annotated including an extensive biography of the author and his life Concerning the Orthodox Faith the third book of the Fountain of Wisdom is the most important of John Damascene s writings and one of the most notable works of Christian antiquity Its authority has always been great among the theologians of the East and West Here again the author modestly disavows any claim of originality any purpose to essay a new exposition of doctrinal truth He assigns himself the less pretentious task of collecting in a single work the opinions of the ancient writers scattered through many volumes and of systematizing and connecting them in a logical whole It is no small credit to John of Damascus that he was able to give to the Church in the eighth century its first summary of connected theological opinions At the command of Eugenius III it was rendered into Latin by Burgundio of Pisa in 1150 shortly before Peter Lombard s Book of Sentences appeared This translation was used by Peter Lombard and St Thomas Aquinas as well as by other theologians till the Humanists rejected it for a more elegant one The author follows the same order as does Theodoret of Cyrus in his Epitome of Christian Doctrine But while he imitates the general plan of Theodoret he does not make use of his method He quotes not only form the pages of Holy Writ but also from the writings of the Fathers As a result his work is an inexhaustible thesaurus of tradition which became the standard for the great Scholastics who followed In particular he draws generously from Gregory of Nazianzus whose works he seems to have absorbed from Basil Gregory of Nyssa Cyril of Alexandria Leo the Great Athanasius John Chrysostum and Epiphanius The work is divided into four books This division however is an arbitrary one neither contemplated by the author nor justified by the Greek manuscript It is probably the work of a Latin translator seeking to accommodate it to the style of the four books of Lombard s Sentences The New Englander ,1877 The Sacred Writings of St. John of Damascus John of Damascus, Concerning the Orthodox Faith the third book of the Fountain of Wisdom is the most important of John Damascene s writings and one of the most notable works of Christian antiquity Its authority has always been great among the theologians of the East and West Here again the author modestly disavows any claim of originality any purpose to essay a new exposition of doctrinal truth He assigns himself the less pretentious task of collecting in a single work the opinions of the ancient writers scattered through many volumes and of systematizing and connecting them in a logical whole It is no small credit to John of Damascus that he was able to give to the Church in the eighth century its first summary of connected theological opinions At the command of Eugenius III it was rendered into Latin by Burgundio of Pisa in 1150 shortly before Peter Lombard s Book of Sentences appeared This translation was used by Peter Lombard and St Thomas Aquinas as well as by other theologians till the Humanists rejected it for a more elegant one The author follows the same order as does Theodoret of Cyrus in his Epitome of Christian Doctrine But while he imitates the general plan of Theodoret he does not make use of his method He quotes not only from the pages of Holy Writ but also from the writings of the Fathers As a result his work is an inexhaustible thesaurus of tradition which became the standard for the great Scholastics who followed In particular he draws generously from Gregory of Nazianzus whose works he seems to have absorbed from Basil Gregory of Nyssa Cyril of Alexandria Leo the Great Athanasius John Chrysostom and Epiphanius The work is divided into four books The Great Texts of the Bible: Isaiah James Hastings,1910
