Being a Christian: what it Means and how to Begin Washington GLADDEN,1876

Why Become a Christian? J. W. West,1945

On Being a Christian Hans Küng,2008-01-07 Why should one be a Christian Is there something more to being a Christian than to being human Just what does it mean to be a Christian especially in today's modern world Hans Küng one of the greatest theologians of this century ponders these questions and from a lifetime of study suggests the answers He looks carefully at the evidence in the Bible at the challenges of modern humanisms and of the world religions at the questions concerning death at the local and the universal church at the individual's own personal decisions and at the freedom that Christianity brings including the freedom to serve On Being a Christian is a vital and important statement about what it means to be a Christian Hans Küng has himself said of the book which he regards as his magnum opus that it intends to clarify and challenge Christian faith and life at a time when the churches have unfortunately lost rather than gained in credibility It seeks to bring to light for this present time the original Christian message and particularly the figure of Jesus of Nazareth The book continues to offer a strong message to today s Christians As King says in the closing of the book By following Jesus Christ people in the world today can live act suffer and die in a truly human way in happiness and unhappiness life and death sustained by God and helpful to fellow men and women

How to Become a Christian Charlie Avila,2020-05-28 I have written this book for the non Christian If you are a person who does not attend church or has had little to no Christian church upbringing then this book is for you I have sought to eliminate any religious language that would be familiar only to Christians While I quote extensively from the Bible I deliberately chose not to include the Scripture references so the text does not get bogged down with unfamiliar books and locations example 2 Chronicles 29 15 All Bible verses are set off in quotation marks One of the most important things I have sought to do in each chapter is get right to the point I m just going to say it I m not beating around the bush I limited myself to just over two typed 8 5 X 11 pages per chapter The most powerful biblical truths are simple and straightforward I use short sentences often Also I say the main points of the chapters in the first few sentences This has actually been a very challenging task Most of us are very wordy I ve also made great efforts to use simple illustrations to highlight various truths I have intentionally chosen to use the second personal pronoun you throughout this book I ve written it as though I was sitting down with you one on one in a living room or at a kitchen table I ve sought to use informal language I also highlight important truths in italics This is deliberate For example I write You can t become a Christian unless you re willing to admit that you are a sinner Please don t take offense I m not picking on you I m just being direct I want my statements to be clear Honestly I think this makes what I m saying easy to understand and I don t waste your time The title of this book is How to Become a Christian You can become a Christian believer by the fourth chapter I ask that you not skip around and read only those chapters that draw your attention It really won t take you very long to read the entire book Each chapter will only take you about ten minutes The first six chapters will deal with why man is a sinner and how to find the way out of our terrible situation Chapters four through six are the core of the book You should read these chapters at least two times Starting with chapter seven I will already take you into the depths of the Christian life Chapters eight through ten continue to show the salvation that God has provided for mankind These chapters give further explanation to what happened to you in chapters four through six Chapters eleven through sixteen provides practical instruction now that you are a Christian believer I cover everything from water baptism to sharing your newfound faith with others Chapters seventeen and eighteen complete the book with teaching on special topics that are of great importance to your understanding of God s purposes In the last chapter I share briefly my personal testimony of how I became a Christian In Appendix A I provide a short prayer of salvation with a space for you to sign and date if you ve committed yourself to follow the Lord There is no magic prayer that saves people Whatever you do pray to the Lord with a humble and sincere heart He listens intently to the cry of the one who desperately needs Him God will not turn you away if you come to Him in faith and truth Finally I recorded nineteen videos on YouTube and our church s website www teacherofthebible com that follow these chapters exactly Most of these videos are about thirty minutes long If you don t understand something in one of the chapters of this book you may want to watch the video All videos begin with How to Become a Christian followed by the chapter number 01 19 and then the chapter title ex The Holy Spirit Living in You The last section of this book includes a few study questions for each chapter
