still immense and that deadly new pathogens may emerge at any time in the future to menace human health failing to defend animal experimentation from the arguments of its opponents has disastrous implications A quick response to an unanticipated threat on the order of the AIDS epidemic is unimaginable absent a vigorous research establishment which in turn is dependent on animal proxies Why Animal Experimentation Matters is a first attempt by research scientists and moral philosophers to mount a convincing defense against animal rights enthusiasts Because opponents of animal experimentation come from a variety of intellectual backgrounds this defense is necessarily interdisciplinary as well In this collection of eight essays the authors scrutinize how animal experimentation actually functions in the laboratory the vital role that it plays in palliating and eradicating human and animal diseases and the moral justification for sacrificing animals for the betterment of human life The subjects covered in the essays include the moral status of animals and persons the importance of animals for advancing scientific knowledge the history of animal experimentation and of its detractors differing theoretical approaches of American and European animal experimentation regulations the heavily restrictive legislation promoted by animal rights activists and the threats posed to research and researchers by violent animal rights zealots Contributors include Baruch Brody H Tristram Englehardt Jr R G Frey Kenneth F Kiple and Kriemhild Cone Ornelas Adrian R Morrison Charles S Nicoll and Sharon M Russell Jerrold Tannenbaum and Stuart M Zola This important anthology will be of interest to scientists philosophers individuals suffering from heritable or communicable diseases relatives of afflicted individuals and policymakers Ellen Frankel Paul is deputy director of the Social Philosophy and Policy Center professor of political science and philosophy at Bowling Green State University and editor in chief of the journal Social Philosophy both are professors of philosophy at Bowling Green State University The Animal's Agenda ,1999 Animal Biology Conwy Lloyd Morgan,1887 Our Dumb Animals ,1909 Light ,1890 Shall We Slay to Eat? John Harvey Kellogg,1899 Therapeutic Gazette William Brodie,Francis Edward Stewart,John J.
