Why Worlds Are Made:

A World Made for Money Bret Wallach, 2015-05 A spirited and incisive survey of economic geography A World Made for Money begins with the author stopped at a red light in Norman Oklahoma Observing the landscape of drugstores and banks and for that matter the stoplight and roads themselves Bret Wallach observes Everything I see has been built to make money or at the very least to facilitate making money This he argues is a global phenomenon that nonetheless has occurred only within the past hundred years or so Although guidebooks and culture brokers often disparage these landscapes of commerce Wallach recipient of a MacArthur genius grant argues that we would do well to pay them close attention A World Made for Money provides a compelling condensed tour of our world From Silicon Valley to Sri Lanka from post Soviet Russia to post apartheid South Africa Wallach looks at how human beings are buying manufacturing working growing and shipping food and accessing the natural resources to fuel it all These essential facets of daily life propelled by the profit motive represent a transnational force shaping our surroundings and environment in ways that may not always be beautiful or even healthy but that are fundamental to understanding how the world works in the twenty first century Wallach examines the relationship between acquisitiveness and landscape reveals surprising contradictions and nuances and provides fresh perspective on politically charged topics such as sprawl deindustrialization and agribusiness

Why Does the World Exist? Jim Holt, 2013-04-08 The Washington Post Notable Non Fiction of 2013 I can imagine few more enjoyable ways of thinking than to read this book Sarah Bakewell New York Times Book Review front page review Tackling the darkest question in all of philosophy with raffish erudition Dwight Garner New York Times author Jim Holt explores the greatest metaphysical mystery of all why is there something rather than nothing This runaway bestseller which has captured the imagination of critics and the public alike traces our latest efforts to grasp the origins of the universe Holt adopts the role of cosmological detective traveling the globe to interview a host of celebrated scientists philosophers and writers testing the contentions of one against the theories of the other Jeremy Bernstein Wall Street Journal As he interrogates his list of ontological culprits the brilliant yet slyly humorous Holt contends that we might have been too narrow in limiting our suspects to God versus the Big Bang This deft and consuming David Ulin Los Angeles Times narrative humanizes the profound questions of meaning and existence it confronts

World Made Sexy Paul Rutherford, 2007-08-11 The cult of eroticism is a pervasive force in modern society affecting almost every aspect of our daily lives In this book Paul Rutherford argues that this phenomenon is a product of one of the major commercial and political enterprises of the twentieth and twenty first centuries the creation of desire for sex for wealth and for entertainment A World Made Sexy examines museum exhibitions art books magazines films and television to explore the popular rise of eroticism in America and across the developed world Starting with a brief foray into the history of pornography Rutherford goes on to explore a sexual liberation movement shaped by the ideas of Marx and Freud the erotic styles of Salvador Dali and pop art the pioneering use of publicity as erotica by Playboy and other media and the growing concerns of cultural critics over the emergence of a regime of stimulation In one case study Rutherford pairs James Bond and Madonna in order to examine the link between sex and aggression He details how television advertising after 1980 constructed a theatre of the libido to entice the buying public and concludes by situating the cultivation of eroticism in the wider context of Michel Foucault's views on social power and governmentality and specifically how they relate to sexuality during the modern era A World Made Sexy is about power and pleasure emancipation and domination and the relationship between the personal passions and social controls that have crafted desire The Ante-Nicene Fathers: Lactantius, [etc.], Apostolic teaching and constitutions, Homily, and Liturgies Alexander Roberts, Sir James Donaldson, Arthur Cleveland Coxe, Allan Menzies, 1886 Cyclopaedia of Biblical, Theological, and Ecclesiastical Literature John McClintock, James Strong, 1877 Engineering and Cement World, 1918 The Jersey Bulletin and Dairy World, 1918 The World's Work, 1919 A history of our time The Holy Bible, 1726 A commentary on 1 & 2 PETER David Pawson, 2017-04-01 These two letters were written by the man who tried to persuade Jesus not to be crucified also wanted to erect three shrines on a mountain top for Moses Elijah and Jesus also was targeted by Satan to be sifted separated from the other disciples and whose self confident loyalty was shattered three times within twenty four hours But he had a special place on his Lord's prayer list which was undoubtedly a major cause of his transformation from a reed Simon into a rock Peter which enabled him to be the first pastor not pope of the church and the first preacher of the gospel after Pentecost This high calling qualified him to protect both the church from the persecution outside and the gospel from the corruption inside That is why his first epistle majors on suffering and the second on backsliding the latter containing the clearest warning against once saved always saved complacency His boldness led to his own crucifixion upside down at his own request Bear this in mind as you read both his pastoral letters The Missionary Review of the World, 1903 The Historians' History of the World Henry Smith Williams, 1926 Textile World Walter S.
