these Among them are several well known historical figures such as Hilda of Whitby but the majority of the book celebrates the accomplishments of women in the last two hundred years in religious life social reform literature and theology and above all in the ordained ministry More than 5000 women have been ordained to the priesthood so far and in 2012 the consecration of women as bishops is likely to be authorised Trevor Beeson reflects on the long term consequences of a momentous change in the church s life which should result in the release all its members from the restrictions of a still largely male orientated faith community
