Journeying and Journalling Giselle Bastin, 2010 In December 2004 the town of Penneshaw Kangaroo Island provided the backdrop for an international conference titled Journeying and Journalling The conference created a space for creative and critical meditations on travel writing Collectively the essays in this collection provide a snapshot of current directions and preoccupations in contemporary travel writing scholarship They function as a reminder of the work that has been done on representations of Indigeneity and of writing marginalised narratives into the travel canon However these chapters also remind us of the important work that remains particularly in relation to travel writing as form of reconciliation for example between Indigenous people and colonisers and between colonisers and neo colonials Scholars also bear the responsibility of considering the complexities of representing culture and place in a post colonial even post traumatic world This collection includes essays by Tim Youngs Helen Tiffin and Paul Sharrad and many other leading writers in the field of travel writing

UNTANGLES RHYMES NANCY SHARMA, 2020-10-04 Wounded Images Kristine M. Whaley, 2024-03-27 This volume works through deconstructing traditional models of the imago Dei in search of a more inclusive understanding of the doctrine one that allows for literature to bring important questions to bear Brief analyses of Karl Barth and Paul Tillich and then growing dissatisfaction with the two in various liberation theologies brings to light the problems of a perfected image of God An exploration of four novels by Jean Rhys between 1928 and 1939 then follows the footsteps of Katie Cannon and others who include literature in their theological work The Rhys novels follow tragic stories of women who are wounded both by others and by their own inability to see themselves as worthy Through the questions these women ask about themselves and God the reconstruction of the imago Dei is set up This reconstruction centers trauma wounds and a non contrastive transcendence that Kathryn Tanner defines Ultimately it is not in how we are perfect but rather through our risks our wounds and even our grief that we connect to God Critical Perspectives on Jean Rhys Pierrette M.
