Structures: A Studio Approach Edmond Saliklis,2020-03-02 Understanding how gravity loads and wind and earthquake loads flow through a building is of utmost importance to all structural engineers and architects Paradoxically this critical idea is practically not addressed in any textbook on the market Meant as a companion to the author's Structures A Geometric Approach this textbook fills that need with qualitative techniques as well as quantitative tools that use state of the art visual representation of forces and deformations in structures Structures A Studio Approach reaches out to both structural engineers and designers by presenting structural engineering topics in an interdisciplinary studio environment Using many graphical techniques it offers a very rigorous approach but also enables creativity Cutting edge finite element as well as parametric modeling tools are used and state of the art visual representations of force flow help both groups of students realize that understanding three dimensional load flow in a building is a requirement for channeling that flow in a structurally efficient and visually expressive manner Ultimately the reader is able to develop a unique structural sensibility an ethos that places structural design on an equal footing with the design of program skin massing and site

Corrections and Collections Joe Day, 2013-08-21 America holds more than two million inmates in its prisons and jails and hosts more than two million daily visits to museums figures which represent a ten fold increase in the last twenty five years Corrections and Collections explores and connects these two massive expansions in our built environment Author Joe Day shows how institutions of discipline and exhibition have replaced malls and office towers as the anchor tenants of U S cities Prisons and museums though diametrically opposed in terms of public engagement class representation and civic pride are complementary structures employing related spatial and visual tactics to secure and array problematic citizens or priceless treasures Our recent demand for museums and prisons has encouraged architects to be innovative with their design and experimental with their scale and distribution through our cities Contemporary museums are the petri dishes of advanced architectural speculation prisons remain the staging grounds for every new technology of constraint and oversight Now that criminal and creative transgression are America's defining civic priorities Corrections and Collections will recalibrate your assumptions about art architecture and urban design

Lettering Large Steven Heller, Mirko Ilic, 2013-10-29 Typography has jumped off the printed page to stand on its own as branding sculpture and even architecture Lettering Large examines this phenomenon through a diverse collection of images collected from a vast range of sources around the world As technology has made construction and production of monumental letters possible the demand for their design has grown exponentially This book is the first to chronicle letters as presences in the urban landscape Preeminent graphic design and typographic commentator and historian Steve Heller teams with Mirko Ili a noted graphic designer to select the most dramatic and telling examples culled from sites across the United States and throughout Europe and Asia

The Architect Maggie Toy, 2001 The objective of this book is to banish the notion of architecture being a male dominated field by showcasing the work of a wide variety of world class women architects demonstrating the role women are playing in contemporary architecture First book of its kind to survey the role of women in architecture Features a wide international selection of world class contemporary women architects Beautifully illustrated throughout
