

The background is a complex, abstract painting. It features a central figure in a dynamic, almost dancing pose, rendered in shades of blue, purple, and orange. The figure appears to be reaching out or holding a thin, glowing line. The surrounding space is filled with swirling, ethereal forms in various colors, including deep blues, fiery oranges, and vibrant reds. The overall effect is one of movement and energy, with a dreamlike or spiritual quality. The lighting is dramatic, with a bright, glowing area on the left side that illuminates the central text.

Spirits Song:

Songs for the Spirits Barley Norton, 2010-10-01 Songs for the Spirits examines the Vietnamese practice of communing with spirits through music and performance. During rituals dedicated to a pantheon of indigenous spirits, musicians perform an elaborate sequence of songs, a songscape for possessed mediums who carry out ritual actions, distribute blessed gifts to disciples, and dance to the music's infectious rhythms. Condemned by French authorities in the colonial period and prohibited by the Vietnamese Communist Party in the late 1950s, mediumship practices have undergone a strong resurgence since the early 1990s and they are now being drawn upon to promote national identity and cultural heritage through folklorized performances of rituals on the national and international stage. By tracing the historical trajectory of traditional music and religion since the early twentieth century, this groundbreaking study offers an intriguing account of the political transformation and modernization of cultural practices over a period of dramatic and often turbulent transition. An accompanying DVD contains numerous video and music extracts that illustrate the fascinating ways in which music evokes the embodied presence of spirits and their gender and ethnic identities.

In the present volume, Joseph Angel remedies this situation by providing a new edition according to the sequence of the fragments determined by the material reconstruction of the more extensive manuscript 4Q511. In addition to numerous enhanced readings and fresh English translations, the volume includes a general introduction, apparatus of variant readings, contextualizing commentary, catalog of photographic evidence, and key word in context concordance.
