Caring, 2006 The Patient's Caring Needs Lisbeth Fagerström, 1999 Care in Technology Xavier Guchet, 2021-03-26 Today it is widely recognized that in order to meet environmental challenges it will not simply be enough to make our lifestyles greener also critical is putting an end to the modern conception of the human as master and possessor of nature However to bear fruit this change in anthropology must also be accompanied by a revision in our conception of technology Since the Enlightenment and the development of industrialization technology no longer seems to be subject to the guiding principles set by the Greeks prudence and the search for the right measure in all which leads to the care of beings and the world Care in Technology analyzes the historical changes that have led technology to become an unthinkable part of care and care an unthinkable part of technology It also establishes the conditions for care to once again become a regulatory principle of the activity of engineers who design technology

The Caring Question Donald A. Tubesing, Nancy Loving Tubesing, 1983 Journal - American Health Care Association American Health Care Association, 1979 Still Me Sabina Brennan, 2025-07-17 The most comprehensive and up to date guide for both caregivers and those living with dementia Television/radio Age, 1987 Normal Instructor and Teachers World, 1902 In Those Days Myra Jo Golden, 2012-10-31 In Those Days is a novel of history prophecy and romance The Bible says But as the days of Noah were so also will the coming of the Son of Man be Matthew 24 37 In other words the last days will be like the days of Noah If you take that literally then they were a society like us an advanced society Is it possible they were smarter than us and perhaps more advanced Did they try to improve us and are some of the genetic problems we see today because of that improvement This is a love story from those days Sharon met Shamie when she was still a young girl She liked him immediately and he liked her Years later when he asked her to come to the project and marry him she was torn She had planned all her life to become a reporter like her parents and she just wasn't ready to give that up

Spirit Dive Michael H. Cottman, 1999 When prize winning journalist and avid scuba diver Michael Cottman participated in an underwater expedition to survey the sunken wreck of a slave ship off the coast of Florida he was overwhelmed by powerful feelings of kinship and oneness with his African ancestors As he held in his hands the very shackles that had bound hundreds of men women and children in their tortured passage from their African homeland to America Michael Cottman became determined to tell their stories and the story behind the ship that had carried them away from all they knew and loved Spirit Dive takes readers back three centuries and to three continents in order to trace the complex and moving story of the slaves and the slavers We travel to England on the trail of the shipbuilders and the captain and his crew to Goree Island located off the westernmost extension of the African continent near Dakar where the ship almost certainly docked and from which its enslaved passengers would have gotten their last view of their homeland and to the Caribbean where the Henrietta Marie sank without a trace until its recent rediscovery gave us a tangible key to one of history s most terrible episodes Spirit Dive is a powerful and compelling testament of one man s attempt to make sense of the history of his ancestors chronicling his journey while confronting questions with no answers and striving for reconciliation with his homeland s past and his own country s future
