That Magnificent 9th:

That Magnificent 9th Mark Johnston,2002 A comprehensive illustrated history of the Australian 9th Division during WWII

Monty's Greatest Battles 1942-1945 Adrian Stewart,2024-07-30 Field Marshal Bernard Law Montgomery had a dynamic personality that often led to difficulties with political or military superiors but made him an immensely effective leader of men He identified himself closely with his soldiers whose welfare was his continual concern and whom he treated almost as family In return they fought for him magnificently in some of the most important battles of the Second World War These battles varied in type terrain and tactics defended river crossings including that of the Rhine amphibious landings including the D Day landings defensive encounters including Alam Halfa and the Ardennes mobile operations including the capture of Tripoli the left hook at the Mareth Line and the dash from the Seine to the Scheldt culminating in the daring attempt to seize the Rhine bridges set piece conflicts against enemies in prepared positions equipped with often superior weapons including Alamein and Normandy In addition to describing the battles that made Montgomery the legendary military commander for which he is rightly remembered this fascinating book examines both his qualities and weaknesses Notwithstanding the latter there is no doubt that he fully justified the trust and loyalty that soldiers gave to the man they knew as Monty

Armies of Empire Allan Converse,2011-03-15 This book uniquely reflects upon the experience of two divisions from different armies in WWII

Memoirs of the Stuart Horse Artillery Battalion Robert J. Trout,2008 Until recently it has been difficult for anyone with an interest in the Army of Northern Virginia s horse artillery which served under legendary cavalry commander J E B Stuart to envision what the men of the battalion endured With the publication in 2002 of Robert Trout s seminal book Galloping Thunder The Stuart Horse Artillery Battalion the endeavors of the unit were rescued from obscurity In Memoirs of the Stuart Horse Artillery Battalion Trout provides readers with complete versions of three important primary documents written by soldiers of the battalion Lt Lewis T Nunnelee s history of Moorman s Battery is based on a seven volume diary that Nunnelee kept during the war and features near daily entries of the battery s actions The History of Hart s Battery as told by Maj James F Hart Dr Levi C Stephens Louis Sherfesees and Charles H Schwing is as Trout puts it a cannon of a different caliber It recounts in broader terms the battery s history from its inception before the war to its surrender as the last horse artillery in the field The authors offer rare glimpses into the development of tactics learned from the school of the battlefield Finally Louis Sherfesees s Reminiscences of A Color Bearer fleshes out many of the stories in the history that he co wrote with Hart and his fellow soldiers Filled with short vignettes it offers a behind the scenes look at the battery in action Together these rich documents provide welcome insights into the day to day experiences of the often overlooked Confederate horse artillery which played an important role in cementing Stuart s reputation as one of the most outstanding cavalry commanders in the Civil War Book Jacket

An examination of the life of General Manton S Eddy this study details his experiences in World War II as leader of the U S 9th Infantry Division through North Africa Sicily and France and subsequently as commander of XII Corps into the heart of Germany While much has been written about the top military leaders of this era there is little information about corps commanders whose missions were limited to doing battle and whose organizations were tailored exclusively for this task Eddy s career provides a model for the Army s most ambitious officers particularly those who like Eddy faced the challenge without family connections or the traditional West Point education He devoted his life to the U S Army enhancing his innate talents through the incorporation of a daily program of self education Eddy had an excellent grasp of the basic principles of military tactics and strategy He attained this art through home study and assiduous application at the Army s professional education institutions in particular at the Command and General Staff College where he served as an instructor for four years He focused on people quickly learning and applying basic skills to draw out their best efforts He came to know what to expect from them in the chaos and under the pressure of combat This facilitated his development of strong mission oriented subordinates His personal goal was always to maximize all available power at the correct point for crushing his nation s enemies and to this end he was extraordinarily successful The Pastoral Review ,1919 A Catalogue of the Library of the Cathedral Church of Salisbury Salisbury Cathedral.
