Photographs of the Albert Memorial [Hyde Park]. Albert (Prince Consort.), Like an Ancient Shrine Petra Schultheiss, 2018-07-16 When Prince Albert died in 1861 at the age of forty two his wife Queen Victoria followed this tragic event by an elaborate mourning period in which she surrounded herself as well as her people with memorials of the Prince Consort Of these the three most elaborate the Albert Memorial Chapel the Royal Mausoleum and the National Memorial to the Prince Consort all included mosaic decoration In close connection to current architectural theories such as polychromy or the ideal of the complete decoration as well as the research and experimentation that was carried out with and about the medium mosaic the memorial mosaics were planned and designed The medium Queen Victoria chose for these monuments served to underline and strengthen the image of Prince Albert that she created and through this also helped to secure her own claim to power as female sovereign This book presents an overview of the history of mosaic in England up to the 1860s and a detailed description of the processes of planning and creating the mosaics Queen Victoria s memorial program as a whole will be described and compared to contemporary mourning rituals as well as British precedents for initiating similar cults The Albert Memorial, Hyde Park James Dafforne, 1859 The Albert Memorial, 1876 The Albert Memorial Alexander Taylor, George Taylor, 1876 Alfred Gilbert's Aestheticism Jason Edwards, 2017-07-05 Alfred Gilbert s Aestheticism presents the first sustained re evaluation of the life and work of one of the most acclaimed sculptors of the late Victorian period Drawing on important new archival sources this ground breaking study challenges the customary assumption that Aestheticism was primarily a literary painterly or architectural phenomena Jason Edwards reveals both the diverse ways in which Gilbert's sculptures operated within the context of Aestheticism and also how these works provided a unique and provocative commentary on the history of masculine friendship and eroticism in the period leading up to and beyond the Wilde trials in 1895. Detailed readings are offered of the relationship of Gilbert's work to essays by Pater and Swinburne, poems, plays and novels by Wilde and W. S. Gilbert, and paintings by Burne Jones, Leighton, Rossetti, Solomon Whistler and Watts. With over 90 illustrations including key contemporary photographs showing Gilbert's works in their original contexts, this book makes a major contribution to the field of Victorian sculpture studies. The Albert Memorial, Hyde Park : Its History and Description Dafforne, James, d. 1880, 1877 Adrian Stokes Stephen Kite, 2009 and personalities and examines how his theory of art developed and matured. The argument is supported by appropriate illustrations to confirm the evidence that Stokes's claim for architecture as mother of the arts carries the deepest experiential and psychological import. Routledge Library Editions: Metaphysics Various Authors, 2021-06-23. Reissuing works originally published between 1937 and 1992, this collection of original texts addresses the philosophical realm of metaphysics, not only ontology but the philosophy of science, religion, and morals. The theory of values and the theory of absolutes are the subject of more than one volume, while others take a broader spectrum and outline the history of the philosophical arguments. The nature of objects and questions of being and identity are addressed from very different perspectives. With some volumes by very eminent thinkers, this is a great addition to any collection on philosophy. Catalogue of Printed Books British Museum, Glimpses of the World : a Portfolio of Photographs of the Marvelous Works of God and Man John Lawson Stoddard, 1899 History as Thought and Action Rik Peters, 2013-12-03. This is the first book-length study of the relationship between Benedetto Croce (1866-1952), Giovanni Gentile (1875-1944), Guido de Ruggiero (1888-1948), and Robin George Collingwood (1889-1943). Though the relationship between these highly influential philosophers has often been discussed, it has never been studied comprehensively. On the basis of published and unpublished writings, this study carefully reconstructs their debate on the relationship between thought and action, following their explorations of art, history, philosophy, and action in the context of the First World War and the rise of Fascism and Nazism. This book unveils the hidden past of contemporary philosophy of history and divulges the last secret of Collingwood's Italian connection. A List of Works Illustrating Sculpture in the National Art Library of the South Kensington Museum National Art Library (Great Britain), 1886 Eccentric London Benedict Le Vay, 2007. Benedict Le Vay reveals London's most bizarre and macabre secrets with his novel approach, which doubles both as a thematic guide to the hidden attractions of the streets of London and a compelling insight into the citizens and culture of this historic city.
