Unlocking the Secret Scroll - The Copper Scroll Tree of Knowledge Hearn, 2024-10-28. For almost seventy years the Dead Sea Copper Scroll treasure map was the most intriguing mystery in biblical archaeology but there has been a vital breakthrough. By simply adding up ten numbers in a mini group the scribes had pre-programmed, the total came to 225, the same number as the orbit of Venus. This result was not mere coincidence because the Genie popped out of the bottle when computations with the numbers in other pre-planned groups had totals which compared to the orbits of Mercury, Mars, Jupiter, Saturn and the solar year. Step by step a wonderful archive of astronomy was revealed from the encrypted matrix of numbers on the copper scroll. It was a very surprising outcome because those numbers on the scroll were supposed to be enormous weights of gold and silver treasures. A picture paints a thousand words and that image materialised when the jigsaw pieces of astronomy were configured on a spreadsheet copy of the copper scroll. This silhouette took the shape of a tree with the extensive list of numbers as the trunk while the modules with the planets were distributed evenly as the branches. It appeared like a vision when the celestial data on the tree developed into meaningful structures, one with the iconic cross and four with paleo-Hebrew letters. At the time of Moses the I am that I am name of God was silent. But on this burning bush apparition was the divine name YHWH written in the stars. People throughout the centuries were conditioned to expect a sign from beyond to prove the existence of a higher divine form of intelligence. The magnificent configurations with the archive of astronomy on the copper scroll has the scientific distinction to be that sign. The Scroll of Phi Delta Theta, 1889
