The Buffalo Head:

The Buffalo Head R. M. Patterson, 2005 The wildest loveliest and least travelled region of Alberta was R M Patterson s home territory in the 1930s and 40s The Buffalo Head ranch was located in the foothills of the majestic Canadian Rockies With the mountains as a backdrop this dude ranch hosted visitors from around the world Patterson bought it from its founder a wild Italian named George Pocaterra and explored the steep valleys and high mountain passes Patterson s tales of the ranch in The Buffalo Head culminate with a fantastic story of meeting a growling grizzly while crossing the Continental Divide in an October snowstorm The Buffalo Head R M (Raymond M) Patterson, 2021-09-09 This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public To ensure a quality reading experience this work has been proofread and republished using a format that seamlessly blends the original graphical elements with text in an easy to read typeface We appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant The Buffalo Head Raymond M.
