Rituals, Collapse, and Radical Transformation in Archaic States Joanne M.A. Murphy, 2020-09-29 Rituals Collapse and Radical Transformation in Archaic States explores the role of ritual in a variety of archaic states and generates discussion on how the decline in a state's ability to continue in its current form affected the practices of ritual and how ritual as a culture-forming dynamic affected decline, collapse, and regeneration of the state. Chapters examine ritual in collapsing and regenerating archaic states from diverse locations, time periods, and societies including Crete, Mycenaean and Byzantine Greece, Mesopotamia, India, Africa, Mexico, and Peru. Underscoring similarities in a variety of archaic states, the role of ritual during periods of threat, collapse, and transformation, the volume shows how ritual can be used as a stabilizing or divisive force or a connecting medium between the present to the past in an empowering way. It also highlights the diversity of ritual roles and location in similar situations and illustrates how states in close proximity and sharing many cultural similarities can respond differently through ritual to stress and contrast the different response in rural and urban settings. Through detailed cultural-specific studies, the book provides a nuanced understanding of the diverse roles of ritual in the decline, collapse, and regeneration of societies and will be important for all archaeologists involved in the important notions of state collapse and regeneration.

The Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire Edward Gibbon, 1899

The Decline and Fall of the Human

Empire Henry Gee, 2025-03-18 By the award-winning author of A Very Short History of Life on Earth, a history of humanity on the brink of decline. A Next Big Idea Club Must Read Selection. We are living through a period that is unique in human history. For the first time in more than ten thousand years, the rate of human population growth is slowing down. In the middle of this century, population growth will stop, and the number of people on Earth will start to decline fast. In this provocative book, award-winning science writer Henry Gee offers a concise, brilliantly told history of our species and argues that we are on a rapid one-way trip to extinction. The Decline and Fall of the Human Empire narrates the dramatic rise of humanity: how a scattered range of small groups across several continents eventually inbred, interacted, fought, established stable communities, and food supplies, and began the process of dominating the planet. The human story is relatively brief: the oldest fossils of H. sapiens date to approximately 300,000 years ago, yet the spread of our species has been unstoppable until recently. As Gee demonstrates, our population has peaked and is declining; our environment is becoming inimical to human life in many locations; our core resources of water, arable land, and air are diminishing; and new diseases, simmering conflicts, and ambiguous technologies threaten our collective health. Can we still change our course? Or is our own extinction inevitable? There could be a way out, but the launch window is narrow. Unless Homo sapiens establishes successful colonies in space within the next two centuries, our species is likely to stay earthbound and will have vanished entirely within another ten thousand years, bringing the seven-million-year story of the human lineage to an end. With assured narration, dramatic stories, and his signature sprightly humor Henry Gee envisions new opportunities for the future of humanity a future that will reward facing challenges with ingenuity foresight and cooperation The Popular Science Monthly ,1895 Union Labor Advocate ,1909 Year-book of the Brooklyn Institute of Arts and Sciences Brooklyn Institute of Arts and Sciences,1907 American Journal of Pharmacy and the Sciences Supporting Public Health ,1890 The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art ,1868 A Reference Handbook of the Medical Sciences Albert Henry Buck,1889 Yearbook of the Brooklyn Institute of Arts and Sciences Brooklyn Institute of Arts and Sciences,1907 Containing the names of the officers and of members a brief history of the institute an account of the work and a copy of the laws relating specifically to the corporation Understanding Collapse Guy D. Middleton,2017-06-26 In this lively survey Guy D Middleton critically examines our ideas about collapse how we explain it and how we have constructed potentially misleading myths around collapses showing how and why collapse of societies was a much more complex phenomenon than is often admitted The Chemical Practitioner ,1937 Science and Social Development Association for Science Education,John L.
