ROBERT LLEWELLYN READS THE ILLMOOR CHRONICLES: THE RATASTROPHE CATASTROPHE BY DAVID LEE STONE

Illmoor – a country of contradictions, conflict and chicanery, riddled with magic, both light and dark. The first in an exciting new fantasy sequence from a fresh new talent.

The city of Dullitch is becoming over-run by a plague of rats, and daily the problem is becoming more obvious. Duke Modeset's corrupt council has no solutions, so heralds ride out to find a saviour. Jimmy Quickpoint returns with Diek Wustapha – a charmer irresistible to girls, sheep – and rats. Diek fulfils his task and is promised £500 for his trouble. But once the rats have gone, the council renege on their deal.

Full of anger (and magic), Diek charms the children of Dullitch out of the city, playing on his mouth organ. Jimmy and his useless friends Groan and Gordo decide they will bring the children back, and garner a huge reward. But their adventure is only just beginning...
