The Sirens of Wartime Radio and How the American Print Media Presented Them Scott A. Morton, 2020-10-05

The Sirens of Wartime Radio and How the American Print Media Presented Them The Stories the Intrigue and the Evolving Coverage of Their Legacies analyzes press coverage from the American print media that helped construct popular images of Tokyo Rose Axis Sally Seoul City Sue and Hanoi Hannah Coverage of these radio sirens essentially constructed and defined these women's legacies for an American audience Scott A Morton examines newspaper and magazine coverage from the periods of each broadcaster and in doing so analyzes four primary research inquires Morton discusses how American newspapers and magazines portrayed each woman to American readers how the American mass media's portrayal of them evolved overtime from the mid 1940s through the present the ways in which the American mass media responded to these five female propagandists either directly or indirectly through print radio and visual media and how the legacy of each woman has been kept alive in popular culture in the decades since their last broadcasts Morton argues that for the most part coverage of the sirens was borne out of fascination and aversion fascination stemming from the novelty of women acting as high profile agents of enemy propaganda organizations and aversion stemming from the potential power they had over U S servicemen and the fact that they were viewed as traitors to the U S Scholars of media studies history and international relations will find this book particularly useful

Doing Their Bit Michael S. Shull, David E. Wilt, 2014-05-23

The golden age of animation stretched from the early 1930s to the mid 1950s with movie cartoons reaching an extraordinarily high level of artistry and technique far higher than today's TV cartoons for instance Nearly 1000 cartoons were produced by the seven major animation studios in the U S between January 1 1939 and September 30 1945 the immediate pre World War II period up to the cessation of hostilities More than a quarter of the cartoons substantially refer to the war and thereby are invaluable in helping to understand American attitudes and Hollywood's reflection of them The meat of Doing Their Bit is a filmography with extremely detailed summaries of the 260 or so commercially produced animated war related shorts 1939 1945 There is also a good bit of overall commentary on these films as a group Two chapters wrap up animated cartoons of World War I and the general political tenor of animated talkies of the 1930s This edition also includes a new chapter on the outrageous government sponsored Pvt Snafus

Even the Rhinos Were Nymphos Bruce Jay Friedman, 2018-06-29

A few years ago Christopher Buckley wrote of Bruce Jay Friedman in the New York Times Book Review that he has been likened to everyone from J D Salinger to Woody Allen but that he is Bruce Jay Friedman sui generis and no mean thing No further comparisons are necessary We are happy to report that he remains the same Bruce Jay Friedman in his unique unblinking and slightly tilted essays collected here for the first time in Even the Rhinos Were Nymphos A butler school in Houston a livestock auction in Little Rock a home for frozen guys in California JFK's humidors in Manhattan all are jumping off points for Friedman's baleful and sharply satirical scrutiny of American life and behavior in the second half of the twentieth century

Travel with Friedman from Harlem to Hollywood from Port au Prince to Etta's Eat Shop in Chicago In these pieces which were published in literary and mass circulation magazines from the 1960s to the 1990s you'll meet such luminaries as Castro and Clinton Natalie Wood and Clint Eastwood and even Friedman's friends Irwin Shaw Nelson Algren and Mario Puzo Friedman is a master of the essay whether the subject is crime reporting Lessons of the Street Hollywood shenanigans My Life among the Stars or his outrageous adventures as the editor of pulp magazines the classic Even the Rhinos Were Nymphs We could sing his praises as a journalist humorist and social critic But as Buckley tells us being Bruce Jay Friedman is enough Bruce Jay Friedman is the author of seven novels including The Dick Stern and A Mother's Kisses four collections of short stories four full length plays including Scuba Diver and Steambath and the screenplays for the movies Splash and Stir Crazy
