Tom of Finland Tom of Finland.,1993      In Visible Archives Margaret Galvan,2023-09-26 Analyzing how 1980s visual culture provided a vital space for women artists to theorize and visualize their own bodies and sexualities In 1982 the protests of antiporn feminists sparked the censorship of the Diary of a Conference on Sexuality a radical and sexually evocative image text volume whose silencing became a symbol for the irresolvable feminist sex wars In Visible Archives documents the community networks that produced this resonant artifact and others analyzing how visual culture provided a vital space for women artists to theorize and visualize their own bodies and sexualities Margaret Galvan explores a number of feminist and cultural touchstones the feminist sex wars the HIV AIDS crisis the women in print movement and countercultural grassroots periodical networks and examines how visual culture interacts with these pivotal moments She goes deep into the records to bring together a decade s worth of research in grassroots and university archives that include comics collages photographs drawings and other image text media produced by women including Hannah Alderfer Beth Jaker Marybeth Nelson Roberta Gregory Lee Marrs Alison Bechdel Gloria Anzald a and Nan Goldin The art highlighted in In Visible Archives demonstrates how women represented their bodies and sexualities on their own terms and created visibility for new diverse identities thus serving as blueprints for future activism and advocacy work that is urgent now more than ever as LGBTQ and women s rights face challenges and restrictions across the nation      Books In Print 2004-2005 Ed Bowker Staff,Staff Bowker, Ed,2004      Robert Blanchon Robert Blanchon,Gregg Bordowitz,Sasha Archibald,2006 Photo based conceptual artist Robert Blanchon left behind an extensive and varied body of work before his untimely death at the age of 34 This publication is the first comprehensive monograph to document his oeuvre and its place within the context of New York City in the 1990s Like his contemporaries Felix Gonzalez Torres Robert Gober and Zoe Leonard Blanchon grappled with the legacies of Minimalism and Modernism the relation between politics and art and his identification as a gay HIV positive artist who nonetheless eschewed identity politics as the basis of an art practice Blanchon s decade long exhibition history is marked by a witty insightful treatment of loss memory and morality executed primarily through photography but also extending to video mail art and performance This publication includes essays by Gregg Bordowitz and Sasha Archibald selections of the artist s writings and an annotated checklist of his archive      Who's a Pretty Boy Then? James Gardiner,1998 More than 600 pictures portraits and erotica postcards and cuttings and snapshots from private collections make up one man s personal and highly idiosyncratic view of gay history since the invention of the camera      The New Yorker Harold Wallace Ross,William Shawn,Tina Brown,David Remnick,Katharine Sergeant Angell White,Rea Irvin,Roger Angell,2005      Battles of Conscience Tobias Kelly,2022-05-05 A ground breaking new study brings us a very different picture of the Second World War asking fundamental questions about ethical commitments Accounts of the Second World War usually involve tales of bravery in battle or stoicism on the home front as the British public stood together against

Fascism However the war looks very different when seen through the eyes of the 60 000 conscientious objectors who refused to take up arms and whose stories unlike those of the First World War have been almost entirely forgotten Tobias Kelly invites us to spend the war five of these individuals Roy Ridgway a factory clerk from Liverpool Tom Burns a teacher from east London Stella St John who trained as a vet and ended up in jail Ronald Duncan who set up a collective farm and Fred Urquhart a working class Scottish socialist and writer We meet many more objectors along the way people both determined and torn and travel from Finland to Syria India to rural England Edinburgh to Trinidad Although conscientious objectors were often criticised and scorned figures such as Winston Churchill and the Archbishop of Canterbury supported their right to object at least in principle suggesting that liberty of conscience was one of the freedoms the nation was fighting for And their rich cultural and moral legacy of humanitarianism and human rights from Amnesty International and Oxfam to the US civil rights movement can still be felt all around us The personal and political struggles carefully and vividly collected in this book tell us a great deal about personal and collective freedom conviction and faith war and peace and pose questions just as relevant today Does conscience make us free Where does it take us And what are the costs of going there An excellent book
