Tomorrow's Canberra Australia,1970 The National Union Catalogs, 1963- ,1964 Tomorrow's Canberra William Holford,1972 The Films of Fred Schepisi Brian McFarlane,2021-11-15 Fred Schepisi is one of the crucial names associated with the revival of the Australian film industry in the 1970s The Films of Fred Schepisi traces the lead up to his critical successes in feature filmmaking via his earlier award winning success as a producer in advertising commercials in the 1960s and the setting up of his own company Unlike some directors he derived from this experience a sure sense of the commercial aspects of filmmaking as well as its aesthetic considerations The volume also considers stories of his early education in a Catholic seminary which he drew on in his semiautobiographical film The Devil s Playground the success of which launched him as an exciting new feature director The volume expands on Schepisi s success story to chart his development as a director in demand in other countries notably in the US and the UK as well as continuing to make major films in Australia Brian McFarlane argues that Schepisi s career is symptomatic of Australian directors who have made their presences felt on the international stage Whereas other key directors of the Australian film revival such as Peter Weir and Bruce Beresford have been the subject of book length critical studies Schepisi s career has not to date been so explored McFarlane takes a critical account of Schepisi s film output including such standouts as The Chant of Jimmie Blacksmith Plenty Roxanne Six Degrees of Separation Mr Baseball and Last Orders and he augments analysis with interviews with the director By discussing the production histories and both critical and popular receptions McFarlane s study shines a new light on Schepisi s work and his rise to prominence in the global film industry Tomorrow's Canberra! Australia. National Capital Development Commission,1970 Australian Metropolis Robert Freestone,Stephen Hamnett,2020-03-25 The Australian Metropolis splendidly fills a huge gap in the literature on Australian cities It is the definitive account of the history of Australian cities and the crucial role which planning has played in their genesis and growth Spanning two centuries from the very beginning until the present day it will instantly become a standard work Professor Sir Peter Hall author of Cities in Civilisation The Australian Metropolis provides a single volume introduction to the development of urban planning It fills the need for a convenient initial resource for anyone interested in the broad evolutionary sweep of modern planning By setting the evolution of Australian planning within its broader societal context The Australian Metropolis presents a balanced appraisal of the positive negative and ambivalent legacies resulting from attempts to plan Australia s major cities This book is the winner of two Royal Australian Planning Institute Awards for Planning Excellence in 2000 2001 including the New South Wales Division Prize for Planning Scholarship in February 2001 Tomorrow's Canberra Australian National Capital Development Commission, Shopping Centre Development (RLE Retailing and Distribution) John A. Dawson,J. Dennis Lord,2012-08-09 The shopping centre has become an established feature of urban structure over the past thirty years Development of centres has been rapid and little attempt has been made to consider the development process and the problems caused by it There is a growing awareness that centres are not always wholly beneficial to their host cities and that some public policy control is necessary This book examines the shopping centre development process and analyses the control policies which have been taken and which are needed It draws on material from throughout the developed world First published 1985 Green Fields, Brown Fields, New Fields David Nichols, Anna Hurlimann, Clare Mouat, Stephen Pascoe, 2010 The conference explores past and future approaches to managing and designing for growth development and decline This goes beyond debates over density frontier development and renewal It includes new fields of historical policy and social research which inform discussion of heritage growth environmental economic and other issues of urban life and urban form Page iii
