the Making of Literary Conservatism Corrinne Harol,2022-12-22 This book reveals a synergy between postsecularity as a critique of emergent liberal secular ideals and practices and the modern literary sphere in which conservative writers feature prominently Corrinne Harol argues boldly yet compellingly that influential literary forms and practices including fiction mental freedom worlding reading narration and historical fiction are in fact derived from these writers responses to secularization Interrogating a series of concepts faith indulgence figuring reading passivity revolution and nostalgia central to secular culture this study also engages with works by Aphra Behn John Dryden Margaret Cavendish and Walter Scott as well as attending to the philosophies of Thomas Hobbes David Hume and Edmund Burke Countering eighteenth century studies current overreliance on the secularization narrative as content and method fact and norm this book models how a postsecular approach can help us to understand this period and secularization itself more fully The Problem of Race in the Twenty-first Century Thomas C. Holt,2002-04-30 The problem of the twentieth century is the problem of the color line W E B Du Bois wrote in 1903 and his words have proven sadly prophetic As we enter the twenty first century the problem remains and yet it and the line that defines it have shifted in subtle but significant ways This brief book speaks powerfully to the question of how the circumstances of race and racism have changed in our time and how these changes will affect our future Foremost among the book s concerns are the contradictions and incoherence of a system that idealizes black celebrities in politics popular culture and sports even as it diminishes the average African American citizen The world of the assembly line boxer Jack Johnson s career and The Birth of a Nation come under Holt s scrutiny as he relates the malign progress of race and racism to the loss of industrial jobs and the rise of our modern consumer society Understanding race as ideology he describes the processes of consumerism and commodification that have transformed but not necessarily improved the place of black citizens in our society As disturbing as it is enlightening this timely work reveals the radical nature of change as it relates to race and its cultural phenomena It offers conceptual tools and a new way to think and talk about racism as social reality The Journal of Commonwealth Literature ,2001 One number each year includes Annual
