Katsiaficas, Teodros Kiros, 1998 In personal narratives pedagogical interpretations and global and philosophical perspectives scholars from a broad range of disciplines and countries examine the concept of multiculturalism and it applies to autonomy identity and education Rather than portray a single version of the concept they provide an example of the rich debate among its proponents Some of the 16 papers which are not indexed comprised a special issue of New Political Science which is not identified Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR The German Classics of the Nineteenth and Twentieth Centuries Kuno Francke, 1914 Compromise Formations Vera J. Camden, 1989 These essays are collected from the Fourth International Conference on Literature and Psychology held at Kent State University 7-9 August 1987 In selecting the essays for this first collection to emerge from the varied conferences now being sponsored by the Kent State University Center for Literature and Psychoanalysis Vera Camden has brought together representative contributions from two major contemporary schools of psychoanalytic criticism object relations and Lacanian theory These essays define the questions which emerge when both schools are brought into the kind of association engendered by this conference offering not so much a resolution to opposing positions as a fuller articulation of the space each occupies and a fluidity of discussion which has characterized psychoanalysis since Freud s earliest discoveries Each contributor is concerned with the place of the unconscious in the determination of the human subject and its representations Whether the approach is primarily clinical or literary each identifies and analyzes the anguish of the incomplete self a self which looks to construct identify regain or even deny meaning A crucial difference emerges among these authors as to how the experience of human alienation and the quest for identify is to be analyzed Some would suggest after Jacques Lacan that the task of analysis is to recognize the illusion of the unitary self and to reconcile the individual to that state Others would contend the task of analysis is to recover by the transference relationship the lost unity missing in childhood and reflect in adult object relations These essays range from clinical perspectives in psychosis and creativity to critical readings of Joyce and Shakespeare to recent applications of brain research to traditional psychoanalytic notions of the human subject The richness and variety in this collection bear witness to the continuing impact of psychoanalysis on literary and cultural studies The Dissertation Iain Borden, Katerina Rüedi, 2006 This is a comprehensive guide to all that
