Bevan, Paul Moorhouse, 2011-01-01 Tony Bevan b 1951 is one of Britain's most distinctive figurative painters. Since the early 1980s he has been making images in acrylic and charcoal that extend the tradition of expressive figure-based painting associated with such older painters as Francis Bacon and Frank Auerbach. Bevan's singular approach focuses in particular on the human head which is frequently enlarged, often isolated and usually abstracted by being reduced to a structure of vector-like lines and marks. Such taut linear structures are descriptive but also evoke the artist's exploration of character, mood and psychic states. Bevan's approach to portraiture is thus inherently and assertively subjective, transforming literal appearance through the implication of complex and ambiguous emotion. This display comprises a focused group of self-portraits made since the 1980s and succinctly traces the development of the artist's interrogation of his own image as subject.      Politics,

Pride and Perversion Erik Eklund, 2025-03-06 Frank Arkell 1929-1998 was the most successful politician of his generation, an Independent who served as Wollongong's Lord Mayor 1974-1991 and state member 1984-1991. Arkell dominated Wollongong public life with unstoppable energy, eccentric flair and a single-minded determination to support the city through economic restructuring. Despite his popularity at the edges of public consciousness, there was growing disquiet over Arkell's private life. A compelling biography, Eklund provides a nuanced exploration of Arkell's relentless efforts to transform Wollongong from a steel city to the Leisure Coast, as well as his connections to an extensive paedophile network exposed during the 1997 Wood Royal Commission. Associate Professor Jayne Persian, University of Southern Queensland, Eklund discloses the tragic consequences of unbridled male lust, deep social inequality and unaccountable class power we have here: a shocking story of sexual abuse and official corruption that brought untold suffering, political disgrace and in the end a brutal murder. Bevan Tony Bevan, 2016      Derek Bailey and the Story of Free Improvisation Ben Watson, 2013-07-02 This brilliant biography of the cult guitar player will likely cause you to abandon everything you thought you knew about jazz improvisation, post-punk and the avant-garde. Derek Bailey was at the top of his profession as a dance band and recording session guitarist when in the early 1960s he began playing an uncompromisingly abstract form of music. Today his anti-idiom of Free Improvisation has become the lingua franca of the avant-scene, with Pat Metheny, John Zorn, David Sylvian and Sonic Youth's Thurston Moore among his admirers.      Locating Renaissance Art Carol M. Richardson, 2007-01-01 Renaissance art history is traditionally identified with Italian centers of production and Florence in particular. Instead, this book explores the dynamic interchange between European artistic centers and artists and the trade in works of art. It also considers the impact of differing locations on art and artists and some of the economic political and cultural factors crucial to the emergence of an artistic center During c 1420 1520 no city or court could succeed in isolation and so artists operated within a network of interests and local and international identities The case studies presented in this book portray the Renaissance as an exciting international phenomenon with cities and courts inextricably bound together in a web of economic and political interests
