International trade is vital for economic prosperity in Pacific island countries but their trade performance has been weak over the past decade with the exception of resource rich countries Small country size and remoteness from global economic centers may have contributed to this relatively poor performance However the emergence of Asia as a global economic center presents Pacific island countries with an unprecedented opportunity to develop trade with Asia particularly in tourism for a number of PICs Moreover if a strong two way linkage is established between tourism and agriculture Pacific island countries stands a better chance to improve broad based growth Tourist, 1924 The Report: Papua New Guinea 2019 Oliver Cornock, Efforts to improve public governance are gradually bolstering confidence in Papua New Guinea s economy despite national performance being heavily dependent on the extractive industries Backed by macroeconomic development plans Prime Minister James Marape s administration is seeking to improve debt management reduce foreign exchange imbalances widen access to social services and provide greater employment opportunities The Pacific Tourist Frederick E. Revisiting Value Co-creation and Co-destruction in Tourism Elina (Eleni) Michopoulou, Nikolaos Pappas, Elena Cavagnaro, 2021-12-19 This book assists the better understanding of value co creation and co destruction in tourism development by bringing together different perspectives and disciplines It provides some examples of how value can be co created or co destroyed within the context of tourism Tourism is susceptible to uncertainty and incidents that can directly impact the supply and demand of its discretionary products and services Consensus has been reached among practitioners and academics that consumer experience is more important than ever for enterprises as well as destinations as the sector has become globalized reached maturity and become highly competitive Still the pathway to success or failure lies within the overall satisfaction of visitors and tourists which heavily depends on perceived value a concept that can be co created or co destroyed by the very interaction between all social actors and stakeholders involved Value creation or destruction is critical not just for traditional supply and demand but also for an array of actors across value and distribution chains including for example staff and intermediaries across the networks The book will be of great value to scholars students and policymakers interested in tourism studies and practices and service management as well as professionals in the field of tourism management The chapters were originally published as a special issue of the journal Tourism Planning Development
