Trouble With Postmodernism:

The Troubles With Postmodernism Stefan Morawski, 2013-06-17 In this original and eye opening study Stefan Morawski sheds light on the often confused debate about postmodernism postmodernity and human values It is an indispensable guide to our understanding of contemporary literature Postmodernism: A Bibliography, 1926-1994 Deborah L. Madsen, 2023-11-20 This is the first bibliography of Postmodernism to take account of work published in all subject areas and in all languages Deborah Madsen has identified a new first occurrence of the term in 1926 preceding by more than twenty years the first occurrence documented by the Oxford English Dictionary In a chronological listing books articles notes letters and working papers on Postmodernism are described with full bibliographical details Reviews of major books are documented and full contents listings are given for special issues of journals devoted to Postmodernism An appendix includes books on Postmodernism announced for publication in 1995 This bibliography brings together in one place all secondary material published on Postmodernism All disciplines are included from anthropology to zoology architecture cultural studies dance drama feminism fiction geography history legal studies literary theory mathematics medicine music pedagogical theory philosophy photography and film poetry politics religion sociology the visual and plastic arts and others The bibliography also documents items in a range of languages other than English Chinese French German Italian Japanese Russian Slovenian Spanish and the Scandinavian languages Access to the information contained in the bibliography is made easy with a comprehensive index providing guidance according to author subject language and key words Postmodernism A Bibliography 1926 1994 is an essential reference text for anyone working in the area of contemporary culture studies

Cultural Studies Vol18 Issue 2 Various Authors, 2021-12-24 Issue 2 3 2004 includes articles on rethinking everyday life the myth of everyday life the persistence of everyday everyday tragedy and creation time and space in everyday life everyday utopianism profane illuminations a different life looking at Barthes and Foucault routine and ambiguity shame presences a mundane voice limitations and consumption of digital commodities in everyday life to name a few Postmodernism Across the Ages Bill Readings, Bennet Schaber, 1993 Piranesi builds a shopping mall Giotto supervises a training analysis Milton directs a film In Postmodernism Across the Ages the traditional notion of change in history the linear analogy of human development comes in for its own share of interpretation of reading and hence doubles back on itself This provocative collection of essays examines the way in which the concept of postmodernism has forced a rethinking of the intersection of time and text Appropriately these essays themselves reach across the ages considering authors ranging from Alexander the Great to Chaucer and Milton to Ford Madox Ford and Umberto Eco The volume concludes with a series of four dissenting Afterwords that assess the import of these postmodern readings on some of the major interpretive projects of our day Feminism Marxism Humanism and Deconstruction and Gay Studies BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Our Politics, Our Selves? Peter Diger, 1995-04-17 Is statecraft soulcraft Should we look to our souls and selves in assessing the quality of our politics Is it the business of politics to cultivate shape or structure our internal lives Summarizing and answering the major theoretical positions on these issues Peter Digeser formulates a qualified permission to protect or encourage particular forms of human identity Public discourse on politics should not preclude talk about the role of reason in our souls or the importance of wholeness and community to our selves or the significance of autonomy for individuals However those who seek to place only their own conception of the self or soul within the reach of politics are as mistaken as those who would completely preclude such matters from the political realm In proposing this view Digeser responds to communitarians classical political rationalists and genealogists who argue that liberal culture fragments debases or normalizes our selves He also critically analyzes perfectionist liberals who justify liberalism by virtue of its ability to cultivate autonomy and authenticity as well as liberal neutralists who wish to avoid altogether the problem of selfcraft All these he argues fall short in some way in defining the extent to which politics should be concerned with the self

How to Talk So People Will Listen Steve Brown, 2014-05-27 Words are powerful when they are used correctly If readers want to motivate their kids or employees convince bosses to give them a raise speak with confidence to large groups of people or give a report that won't leave people snoozing How to Talk So People Will Listen is the classic resource they need Expert communicator Steve Brown shows readers how to speak with authority win an argument overcome their fears of public speaking and more

Feminism and Postmodernism Margaret W. Ferguson, Jennifer Wicke, 1994 This collection of essays explores the significant agreements and tensions between contemporary feminist and postmodern theories and practices Having brought enormous changes to conceptions of the body identity and the media postmodernity compels the rethinking of many feminist categories including female experience the self and the notion that the personal is political Feminist analysis has been equally important though not always equally acknowledged as a force within postmodernism Feminist writings on subjectivity master narratives and the socioeconomic underpinnings of the master narrative of theory itself have been particularly influential This volume traces the crossings and mutual interrogations of these two traditions into the arenas of cultural production legal discourse and philosophical thought Multidisciplinary and international in their collective focus the essays range from a study of Madonna as an Italian American woman who is revising the cultural meanings of an ethnic feminism to a unique interview with Mairead Keane the national head of the Women's Department of the Irish political party Sinn Fein Turning the prism of postmodern feminism onto such diverse cultural objects as literary and literary critical texts contemporary film and music these essays intervene in debates regarding technology sexuality and politics Challenging modern feminisms to articulate their inescapable relation to postmodern society this expanded edition of a special issue of boundary 2 also explores ways in which feminism can work as the cutting edge of a global postmodernism Contributors Salwa Bakr Claire Detels Margaret Ferguson Carla Freccero Marjorie Garber Barbara Harlow Laura E Lyons Anne McClintock Toril Moi Linda Nicholson Mary Poovey Andrew Ross David
