True At First Light:

True at First Light Ernest Hemingway, 2002-07-25 Both a revealing self portrait and dramatic fictional chronicle of his final African safari Ernest Hemingway's last unpublished work was written when he returned from Kenya in 1953 Edited by his son Patrick who accompanied his father on the safari True at First Light offers rare insights into the legendary American writer A blend of autobiography and fiction the book opens on the day his close friend Pop a celebrated hunter leaves Ernest in charge of the safari camp and news arrives of a potential attack from a hostile tribe Drama continues to build as his wife Mary pursues the great black maned lion that has become her obsession and Ernest becomes involved with a young African girl whom he supposedly plans to take as a second bride Increasingly enchanted by the local African community he struggles between the attraction of these two women and the wildly different cultures they represent Spicing his depictions of human longings with sharp humor Hemingway captures the excitement of big game hunting and the unparalleled beauty of the landscape Rich in laughter beauty and profound insight True at First Light is an extraordinary publishing event a breathtaking final work from one of our most beloved and important writers
