War and Peace Rimvydas Šilbajoris, 1995 In War and Peace Tolstoy's Mirror of the World author Rimvydas Šilbajoris explores the thesis that Tolstoy's landmark is indeed a statement about life in its totality as if the earth were a unified organism narrating itself in the uncountable processes of living and dying This totality Šilbajoris argues is a model as much of the outside world as of inner human universes organically fused together by Tolstoy's creative energy In this incisive study Šilbajoris leaps beyond previous examinations of War and Peace providing a rich interpretation of landscape object action and feeling Offering a background sketch of the factors that contributed to its conception development and execution he follows the novel through each of several drafts This careful and meticulous foundation sets the stage for a truly fertile analysis exploring the three basic narrative dimensions of the work as a historical novel as a story of fictional characters living among great figures of history and as a set of philosophical propositions that elucidate Tolstoy's views on history free will and the infinite complexity of emotions as they intersect with the epic forces of life Viewed through the elaborate lattice of human experience presented in the text each detail of the novel Šilbajoris shows contains and reveals the fullness of life and a sense of the intimate bond between individuals and the vast panorama of history
