Each of the films is discussed at length with detailed credits and critical commentary. There are six appendices: 1990s clichés and conventions, 1990s hall of fame, memorable ad lines, movie references in Scream, 1990s horrors vs The X-Files, and the decade's ten best. The Vampire in Folklore, History, Literature, Film and Television, 2015-09-18 This comprehensive bibliography covers writings about vampires and related creatures from the 19th century to the present. More than 6,000 entries document the vampire's penetration of Western culture from scholarly discourse to popular culture, politics, and cook books. Sections by topic list works covering various aspects, including general sources, folklore, and history; vampires in literature, music, and art; metaphorical vampires; and the contemporary vampire community. Vampires from film and television from Bela Lugosi's Dracula to Buffy the Vampire Slayer, True Blood, and the Twilight Saga are well represented. Vampire Films Around the World James Aubrey, 2020-10-08 Vampires are arguably the most popular and most paradoxical of gothic monsters: life-draining yet passionate, feared yet fascinating, dead yet immortal. Vampire content produces exquisitely suspenseful stories that combined with motion picture filmmaking reveal much about the cultures that enable vampire film production and the audiences they attract. This collection of essays is generously illustrated and ranges across sixteen cultures on five continents, including the films Let the Right One In, What We Do in the Shadows, Cronos, and We Are the Night among many others. Distinctly different kinds of European vampires have originated in Ireland, Germany, Sweden, and Serbia. North American vampires are represented by films from Mexico, Canada, and the USA. Middle Eastern locations include Tangier, Morocco, and a fictional city in Iran. South Asia has produced Bollywood vampire films, and East Asian vampires are represented by films from Korea, China, and Japan. Some of the most recent vampire movies have come from Australia and New Zealand. These essays also look at vampire films through lenses of gender, post-colonialism, camp, and otherness, as well as the evolution of the vampiric character in cinema worldwide, together constituting a mosaic of the cinematic undead.
