The Book of Music and Nature David Rothenberg, Marta Ulvaeus, 2013-02-15 This innovative book assembled by the editors of the renowned periodical Terra Nova is the first anthology published on the subject of music and nature. Lush and evocative, yoking together the simplicities and complexities of the world of natural sound and the music inspired by it, this collection includes essays, illustrations, and plenty of sounds and music. The Book of Music and Nature celebrates our relationship with natural soundscapes while posing stimulating questions about that very relationship. The book ranges widely with the interplay of the texts and sounds creating a conversation that readers from all walks of life will find provocative and accessible. The anthology includes classic texts on music and nature by 20th century masters including John Cage, Hazrat Inayat Khan, Pierre Schaeffer, Rainer Maria Rilke, and Toru Takemitsu. Innovative essays by Brian Eno, Pauline Oliveros, David Toop, Hildegard Westerkamp, and Evan Eisenberg also appear. Interspersed throughout are short fictional excerpts by authors Rafi Zabor, Alejo Carpentier, and Junichiro Tanazaki. The audio material for the book is available online at <http://www.wesleyan.edu/wespress/musicandnaturecd> and includes fifteen tracks of music made out of or reflective of natural sounds ranging from Babenzele Pygmy music to Australian butcherbirds and from Pauline Oliveros to Brian Eno. Power and Partnership

Jonathan S. Barnes, 2013-05-10 While the concept of partnership between churches in the Global North and South has been an ecumenical goal for well over eight decades, realizing relationships of mutuality, solidarity, and koinonia has been to say the least problematic. Seeking to understand the dynamics of power and control in these relationships, this work traces the history of how partnership has been lived out both as a concept and in practice. It is argued that many of the issues that are problematic for partnerships today can find their antecedents during colonial times at the very beginnings of the modern missionary movement. For those interested in pursuing cross-cultural partnerships today, understanding this history and recognizing the use as well as the misuse of power is crucial as we seek genuine relationships of care and friendship in our fractured and divided world. First Voices

Patricia Anne Monture, Patricia Danielle McGuire, 2009 A collection of articles that examine many of the struggles that Aboriginal women have faced and continue to face in Canada. Sections include Profiles of Aboriginal Women, Identity, Territory, Activism, Confronting Colonialism, the Canadian Legal System, and Indigenous Knowledges. Photographs and poetry are also included. There are few books on Aboriginal women in Canada; this anthology provides a valuable addition to the literature and fills a critical gap in the fields of Native Studies, Cultural Studies, and Women's Studies. Voice Quality Measurement

Raymond D. Kent, Martin John Ball, 2000 This comprehensive book explores the many facets of measuring voice quality. Voice quality is a concept that is widely recognized and applied yet very difficult to define in a way that is universally satisfactory. A number of experts consider such topics as perceptual assessment, instrumental objective assessment, and various voice states and disorders. Contributors with a wide scope of experience present perspectives and ideas on how voice quality can be assessed with improved validity and reliability. A History of
