An introduction to the subject and the specific problems related to the conservation of modern structures Celebrating the first five years of DoCoMoMo's role and influence this collection covers policy planning and construction      Breaking News Fred Thirkell, Bob Scullion, George Alfred Barrowclough, 2004 Winner of a City of Vancouver Heritage Award 2005 Before the First World War photographs of major news events were rarely seen in the daily newspapers the technology was still too new to make their use viable Filling the gap and providing the missing images were the postcard photographers who could make their breaking news photos available on the street the day after an event occurred George Alfred Barrowclough was one of those photographers Barrowclough had the eye of an artist and the nose of a newsman His images of Vancouver and the surrounding areas stand out over those of other postcard photographers of his day in that they are more people centred and action oriented capturing the lives and appearances of the people living in and around Vancouver in the decade before the Great War Drawing from postcards that Barrowclough produced between 1908 and 1912 award winning authors Fred Thirkell and Bob Scullion have selected images for Breaking News that showcase the photographer's focus on people and events In Vancouver in those years you looked to newspapers for words you looked to Barrowclough for news This is Fred Thirkell and Bob Scullion's sixth book in the postcard genre Several of their earlier books have also won City of Vancouver Heritage awards      Vancouver Book of Everything Samantha Amara, 2008-08-15 The go to book on Canada's west coast gem from affordable activities to crime and punishment slang to weather people to politics and much more From Gassy Jack Deighton and the Klondike Gold Rush to the Chinese Head Tax to Japanese Internment the Strathcona Protest Vancouver Canucks and the 2010 Olympic Winter Games to profiles of the original Dominic Da Vinci Larry Campbell famed author Douglas Coupland and environmentalist David Suzuki no book is more comprehensive than the Vancouver Book of Everything No book is more fun Well known Vancouverites weigh in on every aspect of their beloved city Historian Chuck Davis gives us his top five events that shaped its history author Jen Sookfong Lee gives us her top five best things about living in Vancouver Vancouver Sun restaurant critic Mia Stainsby gives us the city's top five cheap eats and Global TV's meteorologist Mark Madryga offers up his top five Vancouver weather events From the city's First People and infamous weather to its slang heinous crimes and the ubiquitous Japa dog it's all here Whether you are a lifelong resident or visiting for the first time there is no better resource about the city of Vancouver you'll love the Vancouver Book of Everything Even born and bred Vancouverites will doubtless find something of interest in the Vancouver Book of Everything The Westender The book combines tourist elements with facts that even seasoned Vancouverites may not know Miss604 When your friends start asking questions about the city hand them the Vancouver Book of Everything Vancouver Sun      Art Deco Michael Windover, 2012-12-13T00:00:00-05:00 This book argues that mobility is the central theme of the interwar mode of design

known today as Art Deco It is present on the very surfaces of Art Deco objects and architecture in iconography and general formal qualities whether the zigzag rectilinear forms popular in the 1920s or curvilinear streamlining of the 1930s By focussing on mobility as a means of tying the seemingly disparate qualities of Art Deco together Michael Windover shows how the surface level expressions correspond as well with underpinning systems of mobility including those associated with migration transportation commodity exchange capital and communication Journeying across the globe from a skyscraper in Vancouver B C to a department store in Los Angeles and from super cinemas in Bombay Mumbai to radio cabinets in Canadian living rooms this richly illustrated book examines the reach of Art Deco as it affected public cultures Windover s innovative perspective exposes some of the socio political consequences of this mode of mobility and offers some reasons as to how and why Art Deco was incorporated into everyday lifestyles around the world Creative Milieux Quentin

Stevens,2017-10-02 The so called creative industries are increasingly being presented as an important tool of urban regeneration and economic development Until now research on the clustering of such activities has been limited to economics geography and urban policy This book is the first to gather together emerging research in urban design and spatial planning that explores what characteristics of the built form of cities support the distinctive activity patterns of various creative industries and how and why they cluster together at a range of local scales The book offers detailed case studies and comparative analyses of creative city neighbourhoods on five continents Contributions examine urban forms building types and other qualities of place that attract and retain creative workers and foster creative production outlining a range of methodologies for studying them Taken altogether Creative Milieux offers new insights for urban design practice and for its role in wider urban policy This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Urban Design

BC Studies ,1977 Christianity Jason Byassee,Albert Y. S. Chu,Ross A. Lockhart,2023-06-20 Is God changing the face of the church in North America today The secularization thesis makes it appear that churches are inevitably declining in membership and influence Too often however this assumption of decline is based on only watching the denominations that were church plants of Western Christendom in North America Christianity An Asian Religion in Vancouver focuses on the context of Vancouver British Columbia Canada and notes through a mixed methods study including interviews and participant observation that many churches in Vancouver with predominantly Asian composition are growing both in size and influence What might we learn about God s transforming power by looking to Asia rather than Europe to predict the future of Christian witness in the Pacific Northwest of North America Understanding Vancouver Vancouver (B.C.).
