by African American and Afro Caribbean writers including N H Pritchard Suzan Lori Parks NourbeSe Philip Kamau Brathwaite Claudia Rankine Douglas Kearney Harryette Mullen and Nathaniel Mackey Reed develops a new sense of the literary politics of formally innovative writing and the connections between literature and politics since the 1960s Freedom Time reclaims the power of experimental black voices by arguing that readers and critics must see them as more than a mere reflection of the politics of social protest and identity formation With an approach informed by literary cultural African American and feminist studies Reed shows how reworking literary materials and conventions liberates writers to push the limits of representation and expression
