Rachel Sandford

Whose Song Is Sung:

What Song Shall We Sing? John Ylvisaker, 2005 Many of the best loved Christian hymns move easily across cultural boundaries The way they are sung may change from one place to another but they speak even to worshipers far removed from their origins How does this happen and how can we make better use of these treasures of the whole church John Ylvisaker has given his life to encouraging lively congregational song and here makes a valuable contribution to the conversation about it

You Factory Folks Who Sing This Song Will Surely Understand Wes Mantooth, 2006-07-25 First published in 2007 In early 1929 two organizers for the American Communist Party's recently established National Textile Worker's Union NTWU journeyed south by motorcycle to investigate the potential for beginning organizing work among textile workers in the Piedmont region One of these organizers Fred Beal decided to try his luck in Gastonia North Carolina which had been described to him as key to organizing the South In a chain of events whose rapidity and magnitude took Beal by surprise workers at the Loray mill became embroiled in a Communist led strike that would eventually focus national and even international attention on Gastonia This book focuses on Myra Page Grace Lumpkin and Olive Dargan the three authors of Gastonia novels who penetrate most incisively into the working class experience beneath historical and political accounts of the strike and its larger context
