Whose Backyard Whose Risk Fear Fairnes:

Whose Backyard, Whose Risk Michael Gerrard,1994 Fair Weather Ferenc L. Tóth,2019-07-23 Is a unique cross disciplinary assessment of fairness and equity issues in the context of global climate change a crucial dimension in current international negotiations written by a collection of leading scientists in economics sociology and social psychology ethics international law and political science How should responsibility for adapting to climate change be distributed Who should bear the costs of mitigating its impacts and how should these costs be measured Answers to these questions differ often according to the vulnerability wealth and level of industrial development of the country Finding a fair solution is controversial but crucial to the complex and vital negotiations over global warming This illuminating and accessible volume explores the policy dimensions and analytical needs of the negotiation process It is essential reading for policy makers and students and teachers of economics sociology and social psychology ethics international relations law and political science FERENC L TOTH is project leader at the Department of Global Change and Social Systems at the Potsdam Institute for Climate Impact Research PIK Germany CONTRIBUTORS H Asbjorn Aaheim Frank Biermann Samuel Fankhauser Carsten Helm Juliane Kokott Joanne Linnerooth Bayer Volker Linneweber Elizabeth L Malone Shuzo Nishioka Originally published in 1999 David W Pearce Steve Rayner P R Shukla Dominik Thieme Michael Thompson Richard S J Tol David G Victor Risk Management Strategies Applied To Environmental Cleanup In Central And Eastern Europe - Proceedings Of The International School Of Innovative Technologies For Cleaning The Environment Richard C Ragaini,1997-05-27 This book evaluates current technology and policy practices in the United States and Western Europe in the areas of environmental risk assessment risk prioritization and risk management and recommends strategies for successful risk management regarding cleanups in Central and Eastern Europe CEE The primary focus is on the evaluation of proven risk management strategies which can gain public and regulatory acceptance and thereby accelerate the demonstration and use of innovative US and host country environmental technologies in CEE This will in turn help to accelerate the use of innovative cost effective cleanup systems at US DOE sites and the use of US environmental technologies in foreign markets The book emphasizes using risk management strategies as key components of integrated life cycle systems designed to treat hazardous radioactive waste and to remediate soil groundwater plumes Other topics of discussion include partnerships with international companies for commercial applications acceptance by CEE governments and relationships to other US government initiatives

Economics, Values, and Organization Avner Ben-Ner,Louis Putterman,1998 In this path breaking book economists and scholars from diverse disciplines use standard economic tools to investigate the formation and evolution of normative preferences The fundamental premise is that an adequate understanding of how an economy and society are organized and function cannot be reached without an understanding of the formation and mutation of values and preferences that determine how we interact with others Its chapters explore the two way interaction between economic arrangements or institutions and preferences including those regarding social status the well being of others and ethical principles Contributions have been written especially for this volume and are designed to address a wide readership in economics and other disciplines The contributors are leading scholars who draw on such fields as game theory economic history the economics of institutions and experimental economics as well as political philosophy sociology and psychology to establish and explore their arguments

The International Yearbook of Environmental and Resource Economics 2005/2006 Henk Folmer, Thomas H. Tietenberg, 2005-01-01 The International Yearbook of Environmental and Resource Economics presents articles which are surveys of current issues in this research area where literature is abundant As every year we recommend the present yearbook to keep up with the developments of this literature Michel Griffon Quarterly Journal of International Agriculture The Yearbook provides a comprehensive overview of cutting edge issues in environmental and resource economics The expert contributors address some of today s most pressing environmental topics including issues in water pricing reforms spatial environmental policy environmental equity and the siting of hazardous waste facilities strategies to conserve biodiversity corporate sustainability the double dividend hypothesis of environmental taxes valuing environmental changes in the presence of risk The Yearbook will provide economists scholars and practitioners working in environmental and resource economics with a comprehensive overview of the cutting edge issues in the field

Managing Conflict in Facility Siting Sidney Hayden Lesbirel, Daigee Shaw, 2005-01-01 The book addresses a growing policy problem confronting all democratic nations By exploring the lessons to be learned from international siting experiences it will prove invaluable reading for academics policymakers government agencies NGOs and other societal interests involved in environmental and siting issues
