Why I Sing The Blues:

New Plays for the Black Theatre Woodie King (Jr.),1989 Black theatre gives the world a truer picture of what is happening with us on a day to day basis because we very seldom depict the past in our work we create the present You can note this in all of the plays in this anthology Our political situation is a guide for most of the darker people of the world The politics of Black theatre is a cry for change and for all that that means whether we are on a university campus in a non profit resident theatre or on Broadway The politics of our being there causes traumatic repercussions From Introduction page 1
