Finding Intimacy in Marriage Kim Hebenstreit,2014-09-23 Many spend a lifetime searching for intimacy intimacy with parents with friends and eventually with a spouse Yet sometimes the road to intimacy is littered with debris from the past and we find ourselves immobilized by our fears and our failures How do we escape the consequences of our unwise choices How do we move into the future when our past has obstructed the way Can spiritual emotional and physical intimacy be restored to a marriage which seems on the verge of destruction It is God s desire to breathe new life into your marriage Change is never easy especially when it requires digging through our closets and revealing the skeletons we have hiding there However with God leading the way you will break free from your fears as you move into His glorious light You will finally be rewarded with what many married couples have desired at some point during their lives to be more personally connected with their spouses one of the most important relationships they will ever have Made to be Loved Stephen B. Bell,Valerie Bell,1999-01-11 While desired the idea of spiritual intimacy is scary and even threatening to some couples They ve tried those other couples devotional books but sharing Bible study and prayer time together just doesn t come naturally And when these sharing times seem awkward and manipulated many couples put the book back on the shelf and simply go on as they were before If this sounds all too familiar Made to Be Loved is the sip of cool water for your thirsty marriage Steve and Valerie Bell encourage couples to go beyond treating the symptoms of a marriage that lacks spiritual intimacy and go straight to the root of the problem The real disease that threatens marriages is spiritual distance from God According to the Bells when a husband and wife invite God into their marriage their perspectives change Hearts are softened expectations become more realistic sexual relations take on a soulful sweetness even fights get better Take your marriage to the next level with the help of Steve and Valerie Bell Develop a deeper love relationship with you God and in doing so create a whole new atmosphere in your marriage
