Spoilt City:

The Spoilt City Olivia Manning, 2000-11-02 It is 1940 and Guy and Harriet Pringle and their friends in the English colony in Bucharest find their position growing ever more precarious The phony war is over and invasion by the Germans is an ever present threat

The Balkans and the West Andrew Hammond, 2017-03-02 This collection of essays locates investigates and challenges the manner in which the Balkans and the West have constructed each other since 1945 Scholars from the two sections of the continent explore a wide range of fiction film journalism travel writing and diplomatic records both to analyse Western European balkanism and to study Balkan representations of the West over the last fifty years The first section looks back to the Cold War examining the divergent often favourable images of the Balkans that existed in Western culture as well as the variety of responses that appeared in South East European writings on the West The second section analyses the transitions that took place in representation during the 1990s Here contributors explore both the harsh denigration of the Balkans which came to dominate western discourse after the initial euphoria of 1989 and the emerging tradition of contesting Western balkanism in South East European cultural production Through this dual emphasis the volume exposes the representational practices that help to maintain a deeply divided Europe and challenges the economic and political injustices that result Despite the rise to prominence of postcolonial theory with its awareness of global inequality the current crises in many parts of South East Europe have received scant attention in literary and cultural studies The Balkans and the West addresses this deficiency Ranging in focus from Serbian cinema to Romanian travel literature from Western economic writings to Yugoslav fiction and from public discourse in Albania to NATO s vast propaganda machine the essays offer wide insight into representation and power in the contemporary European context

Olivia Manning Deirdre David, 2013-01-10 Olivia Manning A Woman at War is the first literary biography of the twentieth century novelist Olivia Manning It tells the story of a writer whose life and work were shaped by her own fierce ambition and like many of her generation the events and aftermath of the Second World War From the time she left Portsmouth for London in the mid 1930s determined to become a famous writer through her wartime years in the Balkans and the Middle East and until her death in London in 1980 Olivia Manning was a dedicated and hard working author Married to a British Council lecturer stationed in Bucharest Olivia Manning arrived in Romania on the 3rd September 1939 the fateful day when Allied forces declared war on Germany For the duration of World War Two she kept one step ahead of invading German forces as she and her husband fled Romania for Greece and then Greece for the Middle East where they stayed until the end of the war These tumultuous wartime years are the subject of her best known and most transparently autobiographical novels The Balkan Trilogy and The Levant Trilogy Olivia Manning refused to be labelled a feminist but her novels depict with cutting insight and sardonic wit the marginal position of women striving for independent identity in arenas frequently controlled by men whether on the frontlines of war or in the publishing world of the 1950s However she did not just write about World War Two and women's lives Amongst other things Manning published fiction about making do in Britain's post war Age of Austerity about desecration of the environment through uncontrolled development and about the painful adjustment to post war British life for young men As the author of thirteen published novels two volumes of short stories several works of non fiction and a regular reviewer of contemporary fiction she was a visible presence on the British literary scene throughout her life and her work provides a detailed insight into the period Grounded in thorough research and enriched by discussion of previously unexamined manuscripts and letters Olivia Manning A Woman at War is a timely study of Olivia Manning's remarkable life Deirdre David integrates incisive critical analysis of Manning's writing with extensive discussion of the historical contexts of her fiction

The Secret City Hugh Walpole,1919 This book is based upon Walpole's experiences in Russia 1914-1917 Set in early 20th century Russia this novel is the story of John Durward who meets Henry Bohun when the latter lodges with Nicholas and Vera Petrovich and Vera's sister Nina Vera encourages Bohun's interest in Nina who longs to leave home Uncle Semyonov turns up with a sense of impending trouble while in Petrograd St Petersburg Leningrad the revolution threatens

Plato's Republic as a Philosophical Drama on Doing Well Ivor Ludlam,2014-10-30 Transcending dominant debates of whether Plato's Republic is about the ideal state the soul art or education Ivor Ludlam's analysis treats the dialogue as pure conversation Returning to the original Greek Ludlam examines the dialogue both in its details and in its entirety The result is a holistic interpretation wherein Ludlam reveals how each character becomes a paradigm for an aspect of the Republic's central theme the apparent good Ultimately it is the individual aspects of apparent good that the characters represent that determines the final course of the dialogue Revisioning the central theme of the Republic through the motivations and interactions of its characters Ludlam provides an innovative holistic and dramatic analysis of this foundational work
